

a year. For eight years he has labored in Wawanese and his congregation regrets very much to part with him. Recently they presented Mr. Currie with an address and a purse of $100.

The people of St. Andrew's Church, Carleton Place, are to be congratulated on the success of their anniversary services, which were held on Jan. 14th. Rev. Dr. MacDonald, of Dundee, preached in the morning and evening. On Monday evening, Jan. 15th, the annual soiree was held, which was a decided success. The principal event of the evening was the address of Rev. Dr. MacDonald, who was for many years pastor of that congregation. Rev. G. A. Woodside, M.A., is now pastor, and under his guidance this congregation will continue to prosper.

It was the good fortune of the corresponding editor to spend the Christmas holidays not far from Rev. P. A. Walker, who is settled at Burke Centre, N.Y. On all sides the best of reports were heard. A donation party was held at the manse on Jan. 5th, at which a large number of the congregation and people from the surrounding country were present. Mr. Walker's predecessor remained in this congregation 51 years, but already the people are fearing they will lose their pastor as he has on several occasions declined calls from other large and influential churches.

Very interesting accounts have lately reached us from Chipman, N.Y., where Rev. James Robertson is settled as pastor of the Scotch Church. This congregation was organized in 1819. Mr. Robertson is its third pastor, and it seems as if he is likely to remain in this place as long as his predecessors, as he has labored with good success since 1884. One pleasing feature of the work is his success among the young people. There are only 20 over 14 years of age in the congregation who are not members of the Church. In 16 years 225 have joined the church, of whom 48 have been removed by letter and 9 by death. The present membership of the congregation is 259. Nine years ago a church building was erected
