CEYLON TEA COMPANY "THE TIMES" OF CEYLON

Says of this Company, May 4th, 1889.
"We are asked by a Correspondent, 'Which Company, for the sale of Ceylon Tea at home, does the largest business?' and we really do not think that anybody can answer this question. In all probability, the Ceylon Tea Growers, Limited (Khangani Brand), sell more Tea than most, seeing that they have no less than one thousand Agents in Great Britain alone, and, in the course of twelve months, must sell a very large quantity of Tea."
This is indisputable evidence that this Company is a GENUINE CEYLON TEA COMPANY.

"DON'T you think it time for Miranda to learn to play on some musical instrument, Edward?" asked Mrs. Sharpe of her husband, as the notes of their daughter's voice floated in from an adjoining room. "Yes," replied Edward with conviction, "I do; but it should be some loud instrument, to drown her voice."

IN an old parish church in Scotland the minister was very deaf. One Sunday the precursor had to give out the intimations in the following order:—New hymn books, baptisms and other minor matters. But the precursor commenced with the baptism first, saying: "There will be a public baptism here next Sunday, and parents will give in their names during the week." The minister, thinking he was intimating about the hymn books, said: "And parents who have not got them will kindly come to the vestry after this service. Small ones, 1d.; large ones, 2d.; and backed ones, 3d."
