

The following Students-at-Law and Articled Clerks are exempt from attendance at the School.

1. All Students-at-Law and Articled Clerks attending in a Barrister's chambers or serving under articles elsewhere than in Toronto, and who were admitted prior to Hilary Term, 1889.

2. All graduates who on the 25th day of June, 1889, had entered upon the second year of their course as Students-at-Law or Articled Clerks.

3. All non-graduates who at that date had entered upon the fourth year of their course as Students-at-Law or Articled Clerks.

In regard to all other Students-at-Law and Articled Clerks, attendance at the School for one or more terms is compulsory as provided by the Rules numbers 155 to 166 inclusive.

Any Student-at-Law or Articled Clerk may attend any term in the School upon payment of the prescribed fees.

Students and clerks who are exempt, either in whole or in part, from attendance at The Law School, may elect to attend the School, and to pass the School examinations, in lieu of those under the existing Law Society Curriculum. Such election shall be in writing, and, after making it, the Student or Clerk will be bound to attend the lectures, and pass the School examination as if originally required by the rules to do so.

A Student or Clerk who is required to attend the School during one term only, will attend during that term which ends in the last year of his period of attendance in a Barrister's Chambers or Service under Articles, and will be entitled to present himself for his final examination at the close of such term in May, although his period of attendance in Chambers or Service under Articles may not have expired. In like manner those who are required to attend during two terms, or three terms, will attend during those terms which end in the last two, or the last three years respectively of their period of attendance, or Service, as the case may be.

Every Student-at-Law and Articled Clerk before being allowed to attend the School, must present to the Principal a certificate of the Secretary of the Law Society shewing that he has been duly admitted upon the books of the Society, and that he has paid the prescribed fee for the term.

The Course during each term embraces lectures, recitations, discussions, and other oral methods of instruction, and the holding of moot courts under the supervision of the Principal and Lecturers.

During his attendance in the School, the Student is recommended and encouraged to devote the time not occupied in attendance upon lectures, recitations, discussions or moot courts, in the reading and study of the books and subjects prescribed for or dealt with in the course upon which he is in attendance. As far as practicable, Students will be provided with room and the use of books for this purpose.
