The Noble Army of Martyrs and Roll of Protestant Missionary Martyrs from A.D. 1661-1891.

By JAMES CROIL, author of "The Missionary Problem," etc. 1 vol. 16mo, 75 cents.

This little volume furnishes a roll of Protestant Foreign Missionary Martyrs who have died by violence at the hands of the people to whom they were sent as Christian Missionaries. It is divided into two parts, the first dealing with the subject of martyrdom generally from the apostolic age to the time of the English Reformation and the Scotch Covenanters, the second part being confined to the era of Protestant missions. The sketches are brief, but the information conveyed is thoroughly trustworthy.

Ragweed.

A West-World Story. By JULIA MACNAIR WRIGHT. 16mo, cloth, $1.25.

This book tells, in the author's usually attractive style, how five children were reclaimed from the degrading influence of a family of "Wagon-Tramps" or "Movers." The purpose and spirit of the story are well shown by the following lines quoted from its title page:

"And judge none lost but wait and see,
With hopeful pity not disdain."

Jacob's Heiress.

By ANNETTE L. NOBLE, author of "The Rhymer of Antwerp," "The Professor's Girls," etc. 16mo, cloth, $1.25.

An historical story, in which the career of the characters is followed through the stirring times of the persecutions of the Protestants in Holland and France during the sixteenth century.

Wedded Life.

By J. R. MILLER, D.D. New edition. Square 12mo, 112 pages, handsomely bound in white cloth, gilt edges, in neat box, $1.00.

Reset from new type and containing a number of new features, the most important of which is the introduction of two Marriage Services—one, a form used by Dr. Miller himself, and the other, the service of the Protestant Episcopal Church.

The Westminster Question Book.

Price $12.00 a hundred, net. By mail 15 cents a copy. A complete manual for the lessons of 1895.

The Creed, The Lord's Prayer,
The Ten Commandments.

A beautiful folded card, printed in colors. Price, 5 cents each, $4.00 per hundred.

An exquisitely designed setting for these fundamentals in a child's religious education has been prepared, and they are now published in a more tasteful and attractive shape than has heretofore been attainable. Every child should have one. It costs more than the plain unadorned card, but will be prized and treasured in proportion.
