This Board pays especial attention to medical work, two of its ordained and nine of the unordained missionaries being medical men. The missions have suffered from the enforced absence of some of the missionaries, but generally are in a hopeful condition.

The Presbyterian Church of England's Mission to the Jews reports expenditures amounting to £1,260 3s. 1d. It employs one missionary and assistant in London, White-chapel; and a medical missionary in Morocco. It is expected that he will receive the assistance of an ordained evangelist, as the work opens up most encouragingly among the Arabs and Berbers. Over 330 visits have been made to the houses of the people.
