

The PORTFOLIO

May, 1893.

The title 'THE PORTFOLIO' is rendered in a decorative, blackletter-style font. The word 'THE' is in a smaller, simpler font above 'PORTFOLIO'. The letter 'P' is particularly large and ornate, with a leafy branch extending from its base. To the right of the word 'PORTFOLIO' is an illustration of a lamp with a sunburst of light rays emanating from it, resting on a small table. The entire title is framed by a decorative horizontal line with a scroll-like end on the right.
