By Most Rev. CORNELIUS O'BRIEN, D.D., Archbishop of Halifax.

CHAPTER XV .- CONTINUED.

"Where is the liver now?" "In the cell it, gallant warriors; I was just returning from putting it away." The two Zonaves looked convinced; but the policeman who had good reason to suspect the Jew merely said : "Open the hatches; I must see this

"Not to-night; not in the dark; it is damp and mouldy. Come to-morrow when the bright sun is shining; old Ezra will give you good welcome."

Without making any answer the policeman advanced and raised the trap; pecring down, the truth flashed on him. "Why, you dog of a Jew, you have been harboring revolutionists, and have sent them off by the water."

In vain the o'd man protested his innocence; an ill-closed door in the wall was opened, and several Orain bombs, muskels, and cartridges were found. Denial was use less.

To-morrow morning martial law will be proclaimed," said the policeman, "and it will go hard with you. We have had your name on our list for a long time." The o'd man was taken prisoner. The light at the policeman's lamp this had on the Z mayes and revealed the faces of Morgan and Lorenzo. At the sight of the latter the old man started, and clutching him by the arm said:

"Are you Lorenzo Aldini, son of Gio-vanni?" Tam. What of it?"

you something you would give the wea'th of Rome to know." "What can you tell me? What do you know of me?"

him came vividly to his remembrance. inurnment:

disappeared by the open trapedoer. A slight plusning in the water first drew the attention of the patrol to the fact of his disappearance. They gazed down into the yellow stream, but all was silent save the subdited purring sound of the water as it gently leved a jutting bank. He was gone; but whether the Ther had level to the meaning officer states the case to the mean and asks their opinion. "Let them blow it up," is the ununimous reply; "we will make a sortic and die priest comes into the apartment; he is the minister of a God of Peace. They have proved themselves heroes; they him on its besom to a place of safety. they could not determine,

The Witch et Endor could not have eluded as more cleverly," said the policeman.

It may here be remarked for the benefit of these who ta'k about the "igno-rance" of the Dalians, that the facts of household words.

Fastening the trap and locking the doors they harried terth. The aring had gates of the city; the guard had hired at some spies who quickly retreated.

The old lew's words troubled Lorenzo, Was his mother alive? Morgan larged and said it was a trick of the old man's to gain time; but Lorenzo could not dismiss the subject so lightly. The stirring miss the subject so lightly. The stirring present, he was a stenished. He and is

CHAPTER XIV.

MENTANA. Mousture patrols chatter through the diavoin tell a mint set satisfied prisoners, interest of Rome; soldiers with fixed for the were and familised prisoners; east they had catronicled thems between the diavointell at minimal prisoners; east they had catronicled thems between the desirability or this or that me bayonets hurry frither and thither; great since by did be wish that his bands were solves in favorable positions on the your pencif," to your neighbor, neighboring hits, especially at Mentana.

The bravery of the solvers, or peanery division from the desirability or this or that, solves in favorable positions on the your pencif," to your neighbor, neighboring hits, especially at Mentana. wain loads of bags tilled with said funds of saura bravery.

or heavily towards the gates of the city. This and a kedsfor check in taking or heavily towards the gates of the city.

This unit a kedsfor check in taking a small village on the slope towards in a short, crisp tone; far better a polite top a fortification at each side of the enditor. They should have been quently learned from the number of stock."

This unit a kedsfor check in taking a small village on the slope towards in a short, crisp tone; far better a polite to the fortification at each side of the enditor. They should have been quently learned from the number of stock." up a fortification at each side of the en-the raiders. They should have been trance. Few civilians are abroad, and under the walls of Rome twenty-four grown darker and more oppressive. Militaged after their heavy losses, and felt that ary law has been problemed, and the it would be madness to go forward for gendarmes have lessened the crowd of suspecions-looking individuals who wore the peculiarly indented hat, seen on Mars and Cupid in the denon the Aventine. In the house of Ajani, already mentioned in these pages, a short but might expect under the wais of Rome; bloody encounter had taken place. Over the bombastic cry of "Rome or Deith!" fifty revolutionists were assembled to plot was easily attend; but it would not conagainst the government; they had arms apper Christian beroes. A delay of several and bombs in abundance. The military days was necessary between they could made a descent on them, when a sharp march; that delay, under God, saved engagement took place; the doors were soon forced, the stairs taken by assoult, and the Pontifical soldiers were masters the non-artival of their allies without of the place. But there was no knowing were disheartened; and the active meahow many such arsenals might be in the city; there was no telling what deeds of willany might be perpetrated by those mally quefied the turbulen', who had already blown up part of a barracks. Hence the undefinable dread which seemed rather to lark in the air out the safety of the Capital, but mort ils than to be confined to a particular spot To retire to bed with the thought that perhaps you may awake hurling through the air with the fragments of your dwelling, is not, it may be presumed, a sleepinviting frame of mind; to rise with the thought that perhaps ere might an un War, advised the Pope to withdraw the bridled mob may be rioting through the soldiers from the Provinces and to city, is not for a certainty, a refreshing concentrate them on Rome. It was a cordial. Yet such was, for many, life in Rome during the last days of October,

Day by day the bands increased in the old cannon. It was assaulted by overtwo thousand Garibaldians, amongst whom Garibaldi himself appeared. For nearly Lancellotti rendered excellent service; day night.

"Curiosity took me out to his farm to shepherd's Place are how he proposed to banish the witse. E.g. England.

two days the heroic little band of Pontilical soldiers sustained the unequal combat; the old cannon was hauled rapidly from point to point, and so eleverly used that the enemy imaginod there was a whole park of artillery. Assault after assault was made and repulsed; the brave sons of France—for many of the defen-des belonged to the "French Legion"— performed acts of valor worthy of the descendants of the knights who fought under St. Louis. Their national courage oined to the love of St. Peter's Chair made them heroes to a man. Worn out after thirty-six hours of incessant fighting, their old cannon at lenght became use'ess, and the enemy ever increasing in numbers as fresh bands arrived, their case indeed seemed desperate. A dense mass is seen moving up the road to the gate; it is fired upon but without effect; it steadily advances. By the light of flickering torches they see that it is great car-loads of faggots pushed from behind. ever higher, rise the flumes, rearing as if in triumph. A demon figure leaps wildly around the cars piling on fresh faggots; his evil eyes, lighted as with a glow from heli, reveal Capodiavolo. Fifty muskets are aimed at him, but with a hearse shout he still leaps round, the glowing domes. Well might a soldier mutter: He must be the devil himself," as he - iw the savage glare of the dancing demons in his eyes.

The gate totters on its hinges, and "Only thee; save my life and I will tell drops in a hundred glowing fragments; a wild yell bursts from the informated hordes as Garibaldi cries, "Rome or Death! On to the assault" A rush, a know of me? Proposed the street of the second of the secon soon the place swarms with the Garibal-Was there then any secret connected dams. Step by step the ground is consistent his history? The policeman, who looked upon the old dew as a mest cumulating villam, thought his words only tended than the tot. The town is in the hands of the fairlight lines, but the soldiers hold the to some deception, and caimly telling fort, Summoned to surrection, the him that probably he would be shot on the morrow," prepared to depart. The mow avail? They are decouded they need wretch easped his bony fingers and know it; but can they hower the Papel urmured: "Let me go and I will give you money. The irm ble heart- receit at the thought.

"Let me go and I will give you meanly.! The ir neble hearts revelt at the thought. It was Capadian be whethered have into this. Space my line and I will tell you all, and I will tell this young man where to find his motive. I can tell him a hard had his motive. I can tell him a hard to find his motive. I can tell him a hard to find his motive. I can tell him a hard to find his promise exasperated by their fearful best for train fearful it was.

From behind, the enemy undermined the castic cor fort, and placing powder beneath it called on them to fay down their arms or they would be blown up, disappeared by the open trapedour. A slight plusning in the water first drew He was gone; but whether the Tiber had have proved themselves heroes; they closed ever him forever or had only borne have done all mortal man could do; furtra r resistance is uscless; lives are not to be needlessly thrown away. In all be nor they can now lay down their arms and live to right for the Pope instead of rushing on to a faclish butchery. True courage is a reasonable act not a blind Timber.

Bible history are as familiar to them as souls of that gall and little garrison we re-With such words as these the generous moved, and consented to surrender; but Fastering the trap and locking the they first broke their swords and rendons they harried forth. The arrag had deted useless their rides. When they have a fifth out on the square Caribida gates of the city; the guard had fired at lookel puzzled; he gazed first on them.

to gain time; but Louetze could not disniss the subject so hightly. The stirring events of the following days. Let him no time for reflection.

Single present the whole garrism was the united of the time step.

The detender of the pass of the following days. Let him no time for reflection.

Louetze could not distime the united of the time step.

The detender of the pass of the followers could scarcely believe to it it
time for reflection.

The detender of the pass of the followers could scarcely believe to it it
time for reflection.

The detender of the pass of the time step in the time spectrum of a none of the most accounted ing macrours to the intervent of the time step.

The detender of the pass of the countries with the counters, and it has the store belongs to the employer.

The detender of the pass of the time step in the time spectrum of the most accounter and in the time spectrum of an ion. It is the store belongs to the employer.

The detender of the pass of the time step in the time spectrum of the most accounter and in the time spectrum of the most accounter and in the time spectrum of the most accounter and in the time spectrum of the most accounter and in the time spectrum of the most accounter and it is to true the time step in the time spectrum of the most accounter and it is to true the time spectrum of the most accounter and it is to true the time spectrum of the most accounter and it is to true the time spectrum of the most accounter and it is to true the time spectrum of the most accounter and it is to true the time spectrum of the time spectrum of the most accounter and it is to true the time spectrum of the most accounter and it is to true the time spectrum of the most accounter and it is to true the time spectrum of the most accounter and the time spectrum of the most bay for nearly two days. However he can claim a place with Austerlitz, Wat- the cucumstances, rade, had sense enough to compliment highly erico, or Gravelotte.

4. Never attempt to instruct a custthe bravery of the soldiers. Even Cape. Monte-Rotondo had now been omer, while you may suggest, or politely those that are pass quickly on their way; homes previously, to cooperate with their the cloud of dread and apprehension has intends inside. Now they were disorganiseveral days at least. They must recruit more bands, ferrify their resition, and old in fresh supplies of an amunition and gins. The heroic resistance of Monte Rotondo had taught them what they days was mecessary between they could merch; that delay, under God, saved Rome from many horrors. The revolutionists within the city, disappointed at sures of the midtary authorities, after the proclamation of martial law, effect-

But these things were unknown at the time; the providence of Gol was working old not comprehend its plans. They only knew that Monto Retondo had fall len, that new bands were pearing in, and there was a rumor of a threatened invasion of regular troots. In this state of afficies, General Kanzler, prominister of concentrate them on Rome. It was a lers of Backs county, who believed in grave measure but a pru-tent one. Each witches," said a wholesate milk dealer small garrison could do no more than in the Pailadelphia Record, "and I had offer an heroic resistance, and be finally overpowered. By concentrating all the Provinces. Monte Redoute was besieged troops on Rame it could be just a gainst on the 23d. It is a city built as its name irregular bands. The result was affected denotes, on a round mountain, about on the 27th of October, and served to fifteen miles from Rome, and can be increase the general feeling of uncasireached from the latter city by the ness. During these dready days of back word that his cows were bewittened, Nomentana and Salara Ways. It had anxiety the conduct of the troops was as were those of several of his neighbors, only a small garrison of about one hundriable; they worked incessantly; but that they were going to drive the dred and eighty men with one piece of they remained out overnight and suffered level spants away on the following Saturarmy. They were trying days, those last mes of October, and few, if any failed in duty.

Meanwhile the outside world was busy with the state of the Eternal City. The news of the sacrilegious invasion of the States of the Church spread over the Peninsula and Europe, exciting every-where the indignation of Catholics. It hounded across the broad Atlantic and moved the generous hearts of Canada's the mad revolution of 1789, were aroused to action in defence of Holy Church. So, too, were Catholies in other parts; but they would arrive too late. One human hope alone remained for Rome; it was France, eldest daughter of the Church; and then, as ever, France was true to her trust. The heart and pulse of that glot is u. closs to waste powder; they can only await the development. The cuts are pushed up to the gate, piled around it, and set on fire. Now the tlames roar and crackle as the dry wood sends up to the factors of leading and set on the course present the set of th great tongues of lurid red; now the Garibaldians shout as the great gate social elements startled the world swebs and cracks; higher yet, and in the last century; it was a eloquent Bishop of Orleans, Monseigneur Dupanloup. History will encircle his name with a halo of glory for his defence ploughed the blue waters of the Mediterrangan, but not swift enough to satisfy the longing desires of the French nation. They disembarked at Civita Vecchia, and under the command of General Count of Failly they arrived in Rome during the last days of October. The well-re-membered rat-tat of the French drums, the unforgotten's end of their trampets fell joyfuly on the ears of the citizens on the morning of October 30. The glad sight of their martial ranks arrayed in red trousers, white buskins, and blue prancing, bagles resounding, and columus of troops tramping heavily along the streets. But tai-tat! How they cleave the still air and startle the rooks from many a moss-covered tower. Behind them comes a rumbling, thundering sound which shakes the sleepers in their hods; it is the passing of heavy pieces of artillery. Rut-tat-tat! The air seems filled with the endless sound which breaks loudly on the ear just at the moment in which one thinks that it is dying away. It is not yet four o'clock on the morning of November 3d, yet all this noise and bustle is rendering the cold atmosphere. It is the prelude to a glorious victory; it is the ushering in of into the revolutionists of Europe, and make them curse this divand endeavor in prose and vetse, in English, French, and Italian to distort its history; it is the morning of the battle of Mentana.

The brilliancy of a victory is not to be eight for in the numbers engaged, but in the difficulties overcome; the bravery of a soldier is not to the guaged by the absolute number killed, but by the dangers boldly confronted. There is much greater room for personal burvery in a | mi to some girls some day; fight between one hundred on each side.

ritles taken, and also from the prisoners, wounded and dead, must have been over ton thousand. Garibabli himself was of a highwayman, there to utter his frenzied cry of "Rome 8. Do not throw there to inter his frenzied cry of "Rome of death"; so, too, was his son Menotti as well as all the leading spirits of the revolution. Well prouvided with arms.

8. Do not throw down goods with an air which seems to say, "I don't care whether you buy it or not."

9. Remember that the purchaser ofrevolution. Well prouvided with arms. well encamped, and thoroughly rested ten sees more in the setter than she thinks i and recruited they had good reason to hope to make a formidable resistance.

(To be continued.)
[This story can be had in book form from J. Murphy & Co. Editinore, or Knowle's book store, Hahrax, N.S.]

THE DREADED LA GRIPPE.

Following this scourge of humanity ane a train of evils in the shape of obstinate colds, coughs, hing monites, etc. There is no remedy so prompt, and at the same time effectual and pleasant, as Milburn's Cod Liver Oil Emulsion with Wild Cherry and Hypophosphites, which is the latest and best combination of auticonsumptive remedies. Price 50c, and $1.00 per botte.

BEWITCHED COWS.

A Queer Ceremonial for the Exoretsing of Witches.

"The papers had a story the other day about some superstitions German farma rannesing experience with one of them early in the winter. For about a year the had been shimmed me at the halk from his farm, and at the time I speak of the quantity decreased so much that I wrote to inquire the reason. He sent back word that his cows were bewittened, so did the Civic Guard. The citizens ches, and I found a group of twenty or were anxious, it is true; still they had thirty men, women and children gather-confidence in the heroism of the little edoutside of his large shed. Various cabalistic writings had been nailed to the door of the shed and in a large iron pot there was boiling about two gallons of milk, in which had been mixed a quantity of paris green. The fumes of the boiling liquid were to poison the spirits that had been hovering around the cattle. "Finally, two large lumps of dough roughly modeled to resemble hideous toads, and which were filled with gunnoble sons. The descendants of the sons powder, were exploded with fuses, and of France who quit their country before the farmers and their wives and children shouted some queer prayers and incantations. It was Indicrous but somewhat weird as well, and the ceremony was repeated at several other farms. It was some time, however, before the cows re-covered, and a few died."

HOUSE AND HOUSEHOLD.

WOMAN AT WHIST.

ment has deflected from the course i rescribed by Clodoveus. Charlemagne, and St. Louis, but the instincts of the nation pointed aright. A wild upheaving of the social elements startled the world in the last century; it was a typhoon engendered in hell and sent forth to blast the fair aspect of France. It passed away, and the heart and pulse of the nation resumed their normal action. Great when following her Catholic instincts, and humbled only when disregarding them, her history proves her to be the chosen arm of God's Church.

The news of the sad state of the Roman Provinces, the knowledge of the cowar lly blowing-up of the barracks, roused the choquent Bishop of Orleans, Monseigneur Dupandoup. History will encircle his name with a halo of glory for his defence of Rome. Napole on at length sent the order to the transport ships, already prepared at Toulon, to set sail. Swiftly they ploughed the blue waters of the Mediter-romann but not action, to set sail. Swiftly they ploughed the blue waters of the Mediter-romann but not action.

red trousers, white buskins, and order fackets, brought a sense of security to every heart, and dispelled the gloomy cloud of undefinable dread.

To remove freshly spilled ink from the take un as much as possible up as before, pouring on milk until at last it becomes only slightly tinged with black; then wash with cold water, and absorb with a cloth without too much rabbing.

"This man has a helpful wife," once remarked a well-known economist who had incidentally partaken of the hospitality of a simple household. "Why do you say that ?" queried an unobservant fellow-guest. "I saw a darn in her exquisitely white table-cloth, and it was finer and more oranmental in my eyes han the most delicate embroidery."

glorious victory; it is the ushering in of a day which will crown the Pontifical alive for a long time by placing them in a glass or vase with fresh water in which bravely won, and which will strike terror a chargoal has been steeped, or a small piece of camphor dissolved. The vase should be set upon a plate or dish and covered with a belt glass, around the edges of which, when it comes in contact with the plate, a little water should be poured to exclude the air.

Catholic and think that they may be use-

1. Remember that ad the time spent cannon, that had kept his thousands at heroic resistance. In this way, Mentana, with them, is unbusinesseake, and, under

7. Do not thrust a package at a customer, as you would a pistoi in the face and that refined young women have I made valuable triends, for life, by their coartesy to a customer. 10. Always remember that duty to your employer demands your best serv-

11. Seek to be a model saleswoman and some one will soon recognize your merit. 12. Dress medestly and avoid cheap, tawdy jeweiry. The best ornaments are promptness, politeness, a well medulated voice, and a strict attention to duty,

13. Have your hair neatly combed, your teeth wed brushed, and your finger nails tidy. Customers are often repeiled by an untidy clerk of either sex.

11. Remember always that you are superior to circumstances only when you make yourself so. The most scrish, exacting employer will gladay recognize the merits of an efficient clerk.

15. Frown down with womanly scorn the nonsensical title of "sales-lady,", is a good thing to be a woman. If you are a true and good woman, a good saleswoman is infinitely more respectable than a so called "sales-lady," and the term was a ring which is wholly on-American.

Be the same to one and ad your customers, rich or poor, whether inerburchase is one cent or a dollar.

DEAFNESS ABSOLUTELY CURED.

A Gentleman who cured himself of Deafnes and Noises in the Head of 14 years standing by BOOKS AND MAGAZINES.

WEBSTER'S INTERNATIONAL DICTIONARY. WEBSTER'S INTERNATIONAL DICTIONARY, Every family, school and offlee should have a dictionary. Care should be taken to get the best. The International, new from cover to cover, successor to the "Unabridged," is the one to huy. Ten years were spent revising; one hundred editors were employed; and $200,000 expended. All book-sellers sell it. The publishers are G. & C. Merriam, Co., Springfield, Mass., U.S.A.

THE CATHOLIC SCHOOL AND HOME MAGAZINE.

The Catholic School and Home Magazine for June has a very choice table of contents. Miss Louise Imogen Guiney contributes a Sonnet on "A Last View of Oxford University." Major John Byrne continues his Talks to Catholic Young Men. Rev. M. M. Sheedy has a paper on patholism in History, and the Sketch of Mother Julia as one of the Founders of Religious Institutes is concluded in the Anniversaries occurs a sketch of John Boyle O'Reilly, by the Editor, Rev. Dr. Conaty, and one of Father Faher by F. A new story by W. D. Keily begins in this number. The always itteresting Gleanings for the children by Cousin Ruth, and the Sunday-School Department have their usual pages. The Frontier by Cousin Ruth, and the Sunday-School Department have their usual pages of the Sacred Heart. This Magazine is fifty cents a year, Address Catholic School and Home Magazine, Worcester, Mass. THE CATHOLIC SCHOOL AND HOME MAGAZINE.

THE MAGAZINE OF AMERICAN HISTORY,
The twenty-seventa volume of the Magazine
American History closes with the Jone issue, bringing its customary claborate index for the benefit of scholars. Edward F. de Laney writes one of the best articles in the current number, entitled "King George's personal palies in Emgland, which forced his subjects in America, against their wishes, into a success ful revolution." The illustrated article which opens this handsome time number, "Historiea Reminiscences of our New Parks," very cleverty-written by Fordham Morris, will interest readers in all parts of the country. "America mast be called Columbia" comes with a sharp point from Edward A. Oddham, of Washington,
"The history of United States in paragraphs" is continued, by Colonel Charles Ledyard Norton; The departments are well filled, and the THE MAGAZINE OF AMERICAN HISTORY. ton; The departments are well filled, and the index illustrates the remarkable success of the permanent preservation. Subscription price, $5,00 a year. Published at 713 Broadway, New York.

THE CALIFORNIAN HAUSTRATED MAGAZINE

I'm sure that if I were to choose Between the two, I'd lake Jim.
But then, of course, Jis Anna's whim.
Well, good-night, I Just love whist,
And trust, next time, I'm on Your list.
—Petroit Free Petro.

Home Hints.

Hennorth to the lungs or stomach as possible.
When the taste of the cook has become vitiated by the tasting of many dishes, a swallow of milk will restore the deciency of the palate, so says an old authority on the cuisine.
Common suphur will kill or drive away i.e. ditte, fish-shaped, silvery post which infosts our pantry. Sprinkle the suiphar free'y about, and the place will soon to cleared of the vormin.

To remove freshly spilled ink from carpets, first take up as much as possible of the ink with a teaspoon. Then pour cold, sweet milk upon the spot and take up as before, pouring on milk until at

THE NEW ESSEANS MAGAZINE.

The New England Magazine for June shows again how this popular periodical is broadening out, to meet the demands of readers in every section of the country. It opens with a clever and comprehensive article on "Art in Chicago" by Lucy B. Monroe, a well-known Chicago critic, "The Government of Cities" is an interesting review of this vexed question by Moorfield Storey. Edward G. Porter writes an entertaining account of the discovery of the Oregon, which has just been celebrated in Portland, by the Boston ship "Columbia". "The Ontiook and the Opportunity" deals with the possible future of the secrety and thu work Walter Blackburn Harts-contributes an essay on Catholiety in Literature" in which he makes a pien for a consideration of the essential and human Instead of the merely local and accidental in all interatures. Mary L. Adamshus a story, "A poor Millionaire," Edward D. Mead writes the Editors Table as usual, The Omaibas Department contains some hright humorous verse by Zitella Cocks, James G Burnett, and T. H. Farmann, Edward Everett Hade writes on "The People in Church and State."

DONAHOE'S MAGAZINE.

Sourced to exclude the air.

For Saleswomen.

We find these rules in the Pilishney may be useful to some girls some day:

1. Remember that ail the time spent and several are one of the property of the manufacture of the property of the manufacture of the property of the manufacture of the manufact

ST. VIVILIES OF LEGAL FOR RNM.

The May cumber of St. Vataurs College fourmal was very good, and we expect that the fourmal was very good, and we expect that the fauthorized with the fauthorized for the semination on with the execumber and push for the commencement. It is a happy idea that of having institutions of chiraction publish, small monature (it is a species of instruction, a training and an meanity to work for the students. Of all the college publications that we receive, St. Via cur's is certainly one of the riveless.

THE AVE MARIA.

THE WE MARIA.

The May volume, comprising the four weekly punications of the Arc Maria, has come to hand. Needless to comment upon it. The widespread circulation of the Arc Maria, the numberless papers that seek matter of interest in its pages, the well-known fone of its articles, all units to make any criticism, on our part, totally superfluors. However, we may be particulated for thanking the De Maria for many a continuor mass in structure marter which we reproduced from its pages, and for wishing it every imaginable success.

THE NOTEL DAME SCHOLASTIC. THE NOTER DAME SCHOLASTIC.

Last week's Scholastic has come to hand, its pages contain always something new and instructive. Notre Dame, Indiama, must be a place favorable in intellectual development and highly calculated to foster literary ability, because more good things, in the line or publications and of high educational literature, come out of a's centre than from any other one spot, that we know of in America. The scholastic is a well-editional a very sprey little publication; it deserves good encouragement.

THE MUSSENGER OF THE SAURED HEART. THE MUSSINGER OF THE SACRED HEART.
Jume, the month consecrated to the Sacred Heart, is the one in which the Messenger is expected to shine; and certainly it does come out with a splendad number. The illustrations are very good. The front spirce is the "Sacred Heart of Jesus," from the design of Muller;
the article, "The Good Shepherd and the Sacred Heart," is illustrated with engravings from the famous works of Plockhors, Overheek, Fuhrich, Murillo and Stelinle. There are several other fine illustrations. The articles are very good, and the general religious news is most interesting. Mr. J. E. M. Rul y contributes a little geni of live lines upon June. If runs thus:—

"Ah! Fanned by the performed breath of spring, Within our model thou art; Sounding with intestethy streamlets ring, pewdr, said brosoms and hindsong ye being, Jonah of the Sacred Heart?"

Naturally enough, when the days are longest and when Jane things its plendors on all sides, that smary hours are to be expected. But there is another kind of Sunny Hours,—we ment the beautiful hitte publication of that name,—and no matter how bright the weath re, without sunny Hours it, and Super Hours it is dull and Noises in the Head of H years standing by a new method, will be pleased to send full par thealars free. Address HERBERT CLIFTON, 8 Shepherd's Place, Kennington Park, London, S.E., England.

THE NORTH AMERICAN REVIEW.

The North American Review for June covers a wide field of the thought and the nativities of the day; while the list of distinguished writers gives assurance of the interesting and problem of the articles. "The Harrison Administration" by Senator Dawes, of Massachuseits, and Senator Dolph, of Oregon, and on the other hand, by Senator Colquit, of Georgia. Karl Hilind gives article on "Modern Revolutions and Their Results." Mr. Murat Halstend offers a solution of the silver question. The Hon. Dorman B. Eaton considers in its fullest extent a political danger to our institutions in "The Perils of Reelecting Presidents." Prof. R. L. Garner describes the methods that he will use in the forests of Arrica, where he will seek to discover the languing of the antitropold apes. Outda writes with her accustomed dash and freedom of expression on "The Penalties of a Weit-Known Name." The shorter articles are all timely.

RIENDEAU HOTEL, 58 and 60 Jacques Cartier Sq.,

MONTREAL. The cheapest first-class house in Montreal.

European and American Plans. JOS. RIENDEAU, Proprietor.

W. H. D. YOUNG,

L.D.S., D.D.S.,

Surgeon-Dentist,

[G-17-190]

1694 Notre Dame Street. Preservation of the Natural Teeth and pain-less extraction. Dersenia Laughing Gas, Vegetable Vapour and Ether. Artificial work guaranteed satisfactory.

TELEPHONE 2515.

WATSON & DICKSON

Watches, Jewellery, Clocks, Electroplate. Art Pottery, Cutlery, Tableware, etc.,

Have much pleasure in Informing their triends and customers that their new store,

1791 Notre Dame Street,

Corner St. Peter Street, Is now open for bitsiness. The goods are entirely new, all pitted used for cash in the best markets. It will be their constant embeavor to supply their patrons with re-liable articles at the lowest possible prices.

Articles for Wedding Presents -A SPECIALTY .--

Inspection solicited, WATCH REPAIRING done on premises by a first-class, workman, JEWELLERY made to order, ELECTROPLATING in all 48 branches,

FREEMAN'S WORM POWDERS Are tleasant to take. Contain their our Purgative. Is a sufe, sure and effectual destroyer of worms in Children or Adults

World's Columbian Exposition, Chicago, 1893.

accepted the invitation of the G vernment of he United States to take part in the Worldsin Countries bean hyposition to be held in Chicago from let May could the bor, 1866. As it is important that a very fall display of Condan ped nots te made on that one isponal general invitation is extended to tion of an producers and manufa turers in maricul-ture in a tic diture, products of forests, distortes, ma erals mechanicy, non-nfactures, arts, &c., to ass it in bringing together such a display of the batteria reserves and toda-tried products of Cana falas will be a credit to the country.

An Exceptive Commits concreter Canada Las Tech appear ted, who will have the general charge of the exhibite and the a lotment of space, and the several Provincial Green ments have been invited to cooperate with the yew of making the exhibition as complete and satz factory as possible.

The Dominson Government will pay the transport or existence, ourgand returning, and for the placing of armers sold.

Entries must be made not later than 31st July-The reception of articles at the Expirition buildings will commence 1st November, 1492, and all extituits, excepting Live Strek, must be in place by horner of applications for space and general inorigation can be obtained on applying by letter post free, to the undersigned, WM. SAUNDERS, Executive Commissioner for Canada-Department of grien ture, Offices, Gth Mpril, 1402.

RICHELIEU & ONTARIO NAVIGATION CO. 1892 — SEASON — 1892.

The following steamers will run as under and all at the usual intermediate ports. To QUERFIC — Commencing about 23th April, the Steamers QUERFIC and MONTREAL will leave Montreal daily [sundays excepted] at 7 n.m.

at 7 p.m. TO TORONTO—Commencing Wednesday, tst Jame, leave duity (Sundays excepted), at be 2 m. from Lachine at 12 30 p m. from tot an Landing at 6 50 p m.

Cotom Landing at 6 30 Pm.
To the SAGUENAY—About 3rd May will leave Quelac every Thesday and Friday at 7.30 a.u., and from 2ard June to 15th September four times a week—Tresdays, Wednesdays, Fridays and Saturdays.
To CORNWALL—When canal ready, Str. ROHEMAN will leave every Tuesday and Friday at noon.

To THIREE RIVERS-Every Tuesday and Friday at 1 p.in.

Friday at 1 p.m.
TO CHAMBLY—Every Tuesday and Friday at 1 p m.
TO THOUGHERVILLE. VARENNES!
VIRCHERES and BOUT DE L'ISLE—
Darly Islandays excepted, per Steamer TERREHONNE at 5 acquain. Saturdays at 2.30 p.m.
LONGUEUIL FERRY—From Langueuil
5 a.m. and every subsequent hour. From Montreal commencing at 5.30 a.m. Last trip
8,30 p.m. See time table.

Montreal commencing at 5.30 a.m. Last trip 8.33 p.m. See time table.

To LAPILAIRIE—From Laprairte—From 18th April to 2nd Mny, 7 and 16 a.m. From Montreal—8.n.m. and 4 p.m.

EXCURSIONS—Commencing Sunday, May 18t, by Steamer Terredonne every Saturday at 250 p.m. for Vercheres, and Sandays at 7 a.m. for Confeccent, returning same evening at about 8 p.m.

For all information apply at Company's Ticket Offices, Richeliett Pier, Windsor Hotel, Balmoral Hotel.

ALEX. MILLOY, JULIEN CHABOT, General Manager. Traffic Manager.