

This photograph shows two types of native equipment : a press for olive oil, and a grinding wheel for cereals. Both are highly inefficient, but little has been done as yet to substitute modern equipment on a co-operative basis.