

opportunities for students... while the latter... in many... after an additional two years of work.

In the... the majority of... the public secondary school as well as from the college...

enrollment in Canada's universities... the year 1958-59... 1,700 earned the master's degree... 4,100 undergraduate students... 1,000 students...

How Educational Goals are Set

About 8 per cent of Canada's total national income was spent on formal education in 1957... 9 per cent of the national... 6 per cent on this amount and the provinces 45 per cent.

Federal expenditures on education include sums for the education of Indians and Eskimos... National Conference of Canadian Universities and Colleges to be... the Federal Government provides grants... research grants through the National Research Council...

The provincial governments provide a Department of Education and... and research; teacher-training colleges; technical institutes... and make grants to all publicly-controlled schools.

The municipal governments provide money for buildings and... and all operating expenses of the schools... difference between the amount budgeted for by school boards and... grants through direct taxes on the land and improvements and... some special levies by a business tax.

There is considerable variation in the means of paying... provincial grants to the school authorities... British Columbia, New Scotia and Manitoba... have switched from... paying the and incentive grants to paying operation grants...