

Thus prospecting, development and transportation work together in the creation of a great future for our northland - a future in which you Edmontonians are playing a most important role.

---

S/A