

4th April 1821

Dear Sir Arthur

When you were speaking on Saturday evening you mentioned that you had arranged or were arranging for instruction in English Literature I wondered afterwards if by any Chance you might be in a position to offer a man in B.C. an opening he has been coaching men for the R. M. C. and other examinations for some years but the change that has been made with regard to the
