

INDEX

f, at 35
 202,
 116 ;
 145 ;
 New
 trad-
 148 ;
 the
 look
 tenae,
 finds
 is the cross
 Mexi-
 in the
 , 151 ;
 ishing
 linois,
 s mis-
 ed by
 Ban-
 , 153 ;
 Féné-
 3 ; on
 re the
 scribes
 young
 , 187,
 tor of 134
 ily sis-
 ancois-

Guy), nephew of the bishop, 140
 Laval, Henri de, brother of Bishop Laval, 19, 21, 139, 141 Laval, Hugues de, Seigneur of Montigny, etc., father of Bishop Laval, 17 ; his death, 18 Laval, Jean-Louis de, receives the bishop's inheritance, 19, 21, 22, 139
 Laval-Montmorency, François de, first Bishop of Quebec, his birth and ancestors, 17 ; death of his father, 18 ; his education, 19-21 ; death of his two brothers, 21 ;
 his mother begs him, on becoming the head of the family, to abandon his ecclesiastical career, 21 ; renounces his inheritance in favour of his brother Jean-Louis, 21, 22 ; his ordination, 22 ; appointed archdeacon of the Cathedral of Evreux, 22 ; spends fifteen months in Rome, 23 ; three years in the religious retreat of M. de Bernières, 24, 25 ; embarks for New France with the title of Bishop of Petrea in partibus, 26 ; disputes his authority with the Abbé de Queylus, 27, 28 ; given the entire jurisdiction of Canada, 28 ; his personality and appearance, 28, 29 ; his devotion to the plague-stricken, 33 ; private life, 33, 34 ; friction with d'Argenson on questions of precedence, 34 ; opposes the liquor trade with the savages, 36-9 ; carries an appeal to the throne against the liquor traffic, 39 ; returns to Canada.

41; his efforts to establish a seminary at Quebec, 47-50; obtains an ordinance from the king granting the seminary permission to collect tithes, 50; receives letters from Colbert and the king, 52, 53; takes up his abode in the seminary, 55; his pastoral visits, 74, 75, 87; founds the smaller seminary in 1668, 97-9; his efforts to educate the colonists, 97-100, 124; builds the first sanctuary of Sainte Anne, 101; his ardent desire for more missionaries is granted, 104, 105; his advice to the missionaries, 105-7; receives a letter from the king re the Récollet priests, 110; created Bishop of Quebec (1674), 129; his reasons for demanding the title of Bishop of Quebec, 130, 131; visits the abbeys of Maubec and Lestrières, 138; leases the abbey of Lestrières to M. Berthelot, 138; exchanges the Island of Orleans for Ile Jésus, 138; visits his family, 139; renews the union of his seminary with that of the Foreign Missions, 140; returns to Canada after four years absence, 141; ordered by the king to investigate the evils of the liquor traffic, 171, 172; leaves again for France (1678), 173; acquires from the king a slight restriction over the liquor traffic, 174; confers a favour on the priests of St. Sulpice, 175, 176; returns to Canada (1680), 184, 186; wills all that he possesses to