ANOTHER CANADIAN GERMAN PRISONER

Pte. A. J. McLaughlin of First Contingent Asks for Edibles and Tobacco.

BROCKVILLE, Oct. 22.—Pte. A. J. McLaughlin, who left here with the first Canadian contingent, writes that he is a prisoner of war in Germany. His communication was addressed to the Daughters of the Empire and contained an appeal for edibles and to bacco. McLaughlin explained that he was alone in the world and had no person to write to for favors asked. Henceforth he will be forwarded a parcel weekly from Brockville.

The death occurred at Present c John Edwards, a member of the local Customs staff. He came from England when a boy and settled in the Township of Augusta, where he became a leader in the manufacture of cheese. He was a member of the county council for several years and in 1904 he contested the County of Grenville in the Liberal interests for the Dominion Parliament. Later he was appointed to a position in the cus-
