

their friends to the meetings, but no stranger shall take part in the business of the Society unless requested by the Chairman to do so.

10.—The Managing Committee may be a Printing Committee when necessary.

11.—Members may be ejected by a two-third vote of any meeting, when their conduct is inconsistent with the Laws of the Society.

12.—All papers intended for insertion in the Magazine shall be written on paper of an uniform size to be named by the Editor.*

* The Editor has named small Post 4to as the proper size.

TO