A Suit That Suits

A man can't feel comfortable in a new suit of clothes unless he is satisfied with it, and his friends are satisfied with it, and he can't continue to wear it in comfort unless he is convinced, as time goes on, that he gave his good money for clothes that will keep their appearance for a reasonable length of time.

These suits will come up to any man's requirements because you walk out with a good fit, and wear a suit made (not thrown together) from the best materials manufactured in "the old country."

It is time for a winter suit. Drop in Thursday and make a selection from:

- A—Bannockburn Tweed, at $12.00
- B—A brown and black mixture Worsted, at 16.50
- C—A superfine Bannockburn, at 18.50
- D—A plain brown English tweed, at 22.00

The clothes are all in this season's newest shades, and the "cuts" are smart but in no way extreme.

A Trousers Bargain—On Thursday $2.49 buys a pair of well cut worsted pants, worth twice the money.

Boys' Clothes—American style overcoats for little fellows, from 3 to 8 years. Made double-breasted, with Prussian collar $6.75

For Older Boys there are smart ulsters, with convertible collars. They are new models in grey and black diagonal stripes. Sizes 29 to 32, $8.50; sizes 33 to 35, $9.00.

There is an American double-breasted coat, in sizes 30 to 35, beautifully made, for big boys, at $13.50; a bargain.
