EATON'S DAILY STORE NEWS

Women's Spring Suits, Priced at $25.00 and $30.00

SATURDAY MORNING MARCH 2 1918

Fashion has this season set herself the task of creating a really sensible war-time mode, and its success may be gathered from the very interesting collection referred to above. These are suits of gabardine, of poplin, of serge and of tweed; all showing the new slender lines, tighter sleeves, shawl collar vests, and narrower skirt that distinguish the new styles.

No need to emphasize the value. The figures alone convey it, so that "he who runs may read." Only the very favorable conditions under which we bought the sweaters makes it possible to offer them at these prices. We secured the whole of a manufacturer's stock at exceptionally low prices, and these are three of the best lines. The great variety in styles and stitches makes it impossible to mention all, but there are coats with sailor collars, roll collars, and collars that fasten close to the neck -some of them of brushed wool in a contrasting color, with cuffs and girdles to match. There are cardigan, jumbo, fancy stitches, brushed wool, and the very fashionable link and link stitch. Colors include rose, Saxe, canary, gold, fawn, grey, cardinal, green, white, etc. Sizes 36 to 42. Prices 3.95, 4.95 and 5.95

The Vestee is the Thing in Neckwear

And You May See It in a Host of Shapes and Sizes in Well Nigh Every Suitable Material That is Known to Fashion, While Collars Are Narrow and Sometimes Rolling

Is it that she is so in tune with war-time economies that Fashion has presented us with the new vestee?

Be this how it may, the vestee is here in an infinity of styles -some bits of filmy daintiness that evoke visions of sheer blouses, some rejoicing in the smartness of lines, and suggesting all sorts of plans for the rejuvenation of an old suit.

A very charming one of fine Shantung, fastened with pearl buttons, is obtainable in rose, navy and wine, and has a round collar in each case, faced with white. Price 9.00

A fresh and spring-like collar and cuff set is of green and white or rose and white gingham check silk, joined by hemstitching to an inch-wide edge of white taffeta. The roll collar is long and pointed, and the little cuffs are absolutely straight and plain. The

Two Enemy Columns Engaged in Hand-to-Hand Combats.

Paris, March 1 .- The war office reports: "In the region east of Chavignon, at 8 o'clock last night the Germans, after a heavy bombardment, hurled two columns against the French lines. A violent hand-to-hand conflict followed, terminating in the advantage of the French. The Germans were thrown back after having suffered heavy losses. Prisoners remained in the hands of the French. "Another attempt against small French posts southeast of Corbeny achieved no greater success.
