EATON'S DAILY STORE NEWS

FRIDAY MORNING OCTOBER 25 1918

Men! The Hunt, November 1st! 'Tis High Time to be Getting Ready to Go!

HIST! THEN HUNTERS LEND YOUR IMAGINATION FOR A MOMENT!

Can't you see the camp-the shack-the bunks-the smoky fire-the eager, restless hounds-the jolly fellows gathered there-the rushing river-the towering, whispering trees. You're one of the party, starting out with a lunch, gun, and full supply of ammunition. Why look! You're on the same old deer trodden, bear trodden path, the same old runway. Yes, the same old blackened pine stub rears its snout on the ridge. Ah! the good old rumbling river winds below. Hist! can't you hear it-the ow! ow! owoo! of the hounds! See on the crest of the far ridge-a buck running like mad, ears down, foam flecked, he's making for the river to get rid of the dogs! Crack! Crack! one of the party has a bead on him! Some person said that a deer hunt was the sport of kings, he was right.

To get one's count, though, with as little discomfort from November's snow and drizzle. is the main thing, and that means proper clothing. Clothing that is waterproof, and not heavy and cumbersome for travelling in the bush. Right here is a suggestion, get an oilskin jacket and a pair of oilskin overalls. The outfit will cost you $7.00. Wear your woolens and ordinary clothing underneath. You'll be warm, snug and dry in an outfit that is light and easy to travel with in the bush. These are in olive shade. An ideal shade in which to "still" hunt. Many a seasoned hunter favors these, because they're reasonably priced and prove a wealth of satisfaction.

At $3.50 are the Oilskin Overalls, with bib front and braces attached. The material is strong drill thoroughly oiled. Sizes 36 to 46.

At $3.50 are jackets to match the overalls, with fronts having an inner storm lap to turn the water. Close-fitting standing collars, closes with snap fasteners. Sizes 36 to 44.

At $4.50 are brown 6-oz. Duck Shooting lackets, in single-breasted style, with dome fasteners, have ten cartridge and game pockets on outside, 5-inch corduroy collar, wind strap on cuffs, double stitched seams. Sizes 36 to 46.

At $10.50 are "Duck Coats" of strong brown duck, lined 26 inches deep, with selected thickly fleeced sheepskins; have six-inch storm collar of beaverized sheepskin, wind break down the front, tweed lined sleeves, with knitted wind cuff, two skirt and leather-stayed pockets on outside. Closes with overshoe fasteners. Sizes 36 to 48.

At $13.50 are warm Mackinaw Coats, in dark red and black overcheck, also blue with black overcheck, in double-breasted styles, with pleated yoke back and shawl collar. Sizes 36 to 44.

At $12.25 are Grey Frieze Reefers, in doublebreasted style, with bodies lined with good union tweed and high storm convertible collars. Sizes 36 to 44. -Main Floor, Queen St.

Now for the Proper Headwear

At $1.25 are the "Safety First" Caps, with corduroy tops, in "Jockey" style, which, when turned inside out, displays a red flannelette lining-the "flag" that announces the owner as a human being and not a deer.

It's a piece of wisdom to wear a cap of this sort when "new" men are in the party, and are taken with a desire to fire into every thicket that gives off a crackling, or at anything that moves Sizes 65/8 to 75/8. The price, $1.25.

At $1.75 are Leather Caps, with tie tops, and corduroy outside band, which can be turned down and tied under chin; have fur ear bands. Sizes 61/2 to 71/2. Each, $1.75.

Here's the "Sou'-wester," the thing to wear with the oilskins. What cares the man for wet and drizzle equipped with such an outfit. They're lined with grey flannelette; have earlaps whch can be tied under chin; outside is olive, green or black. Each, 85c.
