PUT ALCOHOL WITH DRUG-SHELF POISONS, SAYS DR. R. PEEVER

"The minister has as much right to possess himself of liquor as any member of this congregation." declared Dr. R. G. Peever of the First Methodist Church last evening, speaking on the subject of "Personal Liberty and the Liquor Traffic."

"The scandal caused by the minister.

cise of your right does not prove any stumbling block to the weak."

"The place for alcohol," he said. "is with poisons on the druggist's shelf, protected by the prescription of those who know its uses. There is no place for alcohol as a beverage in our midst. Medical and physiological science would place it on the druggist's shelf alon. Economical, national and industrial efficiency would place it only on the druggist's shelf. Referring to the soldiers' attitude in regard to the liquor question. Dr. Peever said that he had talked with returned men and that they did not want the drink back in the country.

Dr. Peever quoted an article from The Advertiser referring to the fact that this year not an arrest had been made at the Toronto Exhibition for insobriety, and that there had not been sobriety, and that there had not been golden.

At the close of the service an exceptionally fine organ recital was held by A. D Jordan. The program contained very few big toned numbers, but it was rich in variety. The majority of the numbers were dainty interpretations. "The scandal caused by the minister for the scandal caused by the minister for finking would be greater, but in the sight of God there is no difference. You would say that the minister should not drink, but I say that I have the same right as you. The question then sifts itself down to this: Is is right for you or I to drink? And is it right for us to pass a law to prevent our neighbors from drinking?"

Dr. Peever, In answer to this, took as his text the revised version of First Corinthians 8:9: "See that the exercise of your right does not prove any stumbling block to the weak."

The congregation of the Centennial Methodist Church were given a musical treat following the regular Sunday evening service yesterday, by Charles E. Percy, the organist, assisted by Miss Eula Kennedy.

Though only a short program, each number, all of a sacred nature, was much enjoyed. Mr. Percy played some very nicely shaded selections. Especially well-played was Schubert's "Marche Militaire."

Miss Eula Kennedy, a pupil of Mr. Percy, who has a delightfully sweet voice, sang "Angels Ever Bright, and Fair," and "The Publican." Both number's were much appreciated. URING the vacation months the sale of space in the proposed Woodland Mausoleum was suspended. The work started again this week, and the cemetery trustees hope this great improvement to the cemetery will be supported, so as to make the erection of the building this coming spring an assured fact. So far the sale has been very satisfactory, and in a short time space will be limited and selection of location impossible.

I would ask everyone interested in this advanced mode of burial to phone or write for appointment. It will be a pleasure to have a representative call at your home or office and explain in detail the great beauty of this building and the more humane manner of taking care of the loved departed. This is done without any obligation on your part.
