Ban Johnson at Work on a Thoro Examination of the Code in Order to Make the Wording Plain.

When the joint rules committee of the National and American Leagues meets in Pittsburg next Monday, the entire baseball code will be gone over and a number of changes passed upon, These changes will not be radical, but it is believed that some of the present rules should be made clearer so as to avoid any possible friction. President Ban Johnson of the American League has his secretary, Robert McRoy, at work revising the present code with a view to correcting some knotty questions which cause differences of opinion.

Two rules that have been the occasion of some trouble in the major leagues and of a great deal of misunderstanding among the minor league and amateur teams are those relating to a base-runner to wacate the base which he last touched.

READ THIS CAREFULLY Over a month agoDAVY had a letter on these two horses, GOLD-WAY and W. T. OVERTON—both from the same stable. I posted all my clients as to what was doing. FRIDAY, the first time, GOLDWAY came out for a long time, with SHILLING riding for his brother.

I'll venture to say that no other man in Toronto got the word to PLUNGE except LITTLE DAVY, who pays for his information, and gets nothing but the best.

Saturday W. T. OVERTON, first crack out of the box, BUT DAVY, had already been posted WHAT WAS DOING.

NIBLICK WAS SENT TO ME direct. This horse had been running away back. BUT DAVY had word saying all was ready, PLUNGE.

BOYS, there isn't a man in this business TO-DAY that PAYS MORE or gets better inside INFORMATION than DAVY, who has stood the TEST where all OTHERS HAVE FAILED.

You can send to NEW YORK, or any other place, for five or ten dollars, but I'LL win you MORE MONEY in one week than these other so-called tipsters will in a month.

OAKLAND SPECIAL-TO-DAY, 15 TO 1, SURE I want all my clients to start to-day. It will be the best 5 DOL-LARS you ever invested in your life. Don't wait till to-morrow for to-day's WINNER.

Guelph, Jan. 23.—Berlin defeated Galt here Saturday night in a professional exhibition game by 4 goals to 3. The first half ended 2 to 1 in favor of Berlin. The second half showed a better class of hockey, both teams working hard and fast. Doherty was the fastest man on the ice. V. Cochrane and Murphy played fine games. For Berlin Edmonds and Frood were the stars, while Leyman in goal saved repeatedly on difficult shots. The line-up: Galt Always Loses.
