

connected with this mission. Rev. H. Read, reports a hope that the work of the Gospel is going on favorably among his people, and states that the Parish Church has been considerably enlarged at an expense of £160 borne by the congregation; that the Parsonage has been completed, a new church has been commenced at Barrett's Cross Roads, and £30 has been subscribed towards the minister's salary, all which he trusts are indicative of progress in missionary operations.

NEW LONDON.—Your Committee have granted the sum of £10 in aid of the new church at Irishtown, which has been regularly attended from the time of its opening in March last, by very full congregations gathered from the surrounding neighborhood. Rev. W. Meek, reports that he has raised, independently of what has been done in the locality and by your Society, about £130 which is all expended, though the interior of the Church is not yet finished: he further states, that in addition to sundry repairs made to the old church, the new stone dyke is being continued round the church-yard, and that the services at both churches have been continued on Sundays and on week days without interruption, as also services at Long River, Third Pond, the Baltic, Fermoy, and occasionally at Cavendish. Contributions to the Society, £8 0s 11½d.

POROTHILL.—Rev. H. Swabey reports that the old church in this mission has been shingled anew and painted externally. The Glebe School House at New Bideford has been plastered and otherwise repaired, so that divine service has been held therein during the summer; he further reports, that the church at Lot 11 is so far advanced that he expects to hold divine service therein at all seasons of the year, and looks forward to being able to finish it in a plain manner, as he has in hand the sum of £50,—£23 of which being a donation from a clergyman of our church and late proprietor of Lot 11, and the remaining £27 being the proceeds of a tea party held in the parish, and a grant of £10 from your Society. Contributions to the Society, £12 2s 9½d.
