Is "Blue-White" Whiter Than "Yellow-White"?

Yes, some people say that "blue-white" is the whitest white known. However that may be, the NEW SYSTEM LAUNDRY will return your wash as clean and sweet and white as pure soap and hot water can make it.

Your clothes will not only look clean to the eye, but they will be absolutely clean from a sanitary standpoint. This is a good thing to remember when there is so much sickness around.

SHE SAYS SHE CAN NOW DO HER WORK

MRS. M. MAGNANT GIVES THE CREDIT TO DODD'S KIDNEY PILLS.

Her Back Ached and She Was Always Tired, But She States She Found the Relief She Longed For in Dodd's Kidney Pills.

St. Lina, Alta., April 9—(Special)—"Thanks to Dodd's Kidney Pills I can now do my work." So says Mrs. M. Magrant, a well-known and highly respected resident of this place. Mrs. Magrant was a sufferer from the terrible weakness so many women know. "My back ached," she says, "and I felt so tired all the time." But Dodd's Kidney Pills, she persevered with them, taking sixteen boxes in all, with the result given in the glad words of the opening paragraph.

Other women in all parts of Canada make the same statement. They were weighed down with weakness, and pain, and found the relief they longed for in Dodd's Kidney Pills. For sick kidneys are the cause of the great majority of the ills from which women suffer. To treat them the kidneys must be strengthened so they will strain all the impurities out of the blood. Ask your neighbors if Dodd's Kidney Pills do not help sick kidneys.

WANT PROHIBITION LAW ENFORCED

Secretary of the Anti-Liquor
League of Quebec Reports
Condition Scandalous.

Montreal, April 10.—At the sixth annual meeting of the Anti-Liquor League of the province of Quebec, the report of the secretary made reference to the scandalous condition of the liquor traffic, which was attributed to laxity in law enforcement. The report stated the fact that not a single member of the provincial legislature, on either side of the house, had made any protest in respect to these conditions could only force upon the electorate the need of a change in the personnel of the legislature without regard to party affiliation. Among resolutions passed unanimously was one that the legislative committee of the league take immediate action to secure the proper enforcement of the Quebec prohibition law.

Rents in Moncton.
Transcript: Many people living in rented houses in the city received notice the first day of April to the effect that their rent would be advanced $5 per month, and in some cases even as high as $10. It is believed by many that the proposed new fair rental board will be kept busy for awhile when it gets down to business.

EIGHT OF THE CANDIDATES HEARD FROM

Addressed Hardware Clerks at Meeting Last Night.

The two candidates for the mayoralty and six of the candidates for commissioner addressed a meeting of the St. John Hardware Clerks' Association in the board of trade rooms. Harry Sullivan was in the chair and introduced the speakers.

Dr. James H. Frink.
The first speaker, Dr. James H. Frink, said that though he was the one who was responsible for the daylight saving at city hall, he believed that the question should be left for the public to decide by plebiscite. He did not think that the harbor commission could be properly held in the time at his disposal. Generally the method in the city was to talk too much and do too little.

G. Fred Fisher.

Commissioner Fisher announced that he was personally in favor of daylight saving, though he knew that some find it a hardship. With regard to the plebiscite he thought that it should be paid for by general assessment. He said he was in favor of harbor commission. For his past record he had always done the best he could, though he was not always popular by the other members of the council.

John Thornton.

Commissioner Thornton thought that a candidate should be free to use his own judgment. He would make no pledges nor promises and would rather stay away from city hall if he could not use his own opinions on matters. He said that he wanted to see more and better facilities for the younger people in the city. Daylight saving, he thought, was continued for too long a period; three months or so was long enough for the city. The harbor question, he said, was too complex to discuss in a ten minute talk. Permanent paving should be paid for by general assessment, but it would not be wise to start a big programme when prices were at their top level.

John A. Chesley.

John A. Chesley said that he had been away from the city so long that most of the young men were strangers to him. There had been nothing done about the harbor since 1906 when the government granted a subsidy of $25,000. When the Borden government came in in 1911 it promised to nationalize the port, but nothing had been done. The only method was for the people to take the matter up themselves. With regard to daylight saving he was not personally interested.

E. Allan Schofield.

E. A. Schofield said if the citizens wanted to see all the improvements they asked for they should expect to pay more taxes and he thought the majority of the citizens were in a position to pay more. He said he would like to see a better community spirit in the city, and pointed to the paving matter as a sample of where the business men would not give the other side the benefit of the doubt of sincerity.

He favors an early equipment and use of public playgrounds. He asked the voters not to try to run the city from the harbor shop, train, hotel or store, but to put in men in whom they had confidence and to take them out when that confidence is lost.

Something would have to be done about the court house, he said, and there should also be established a prison farm, where the criminals could be helped in production instead of loafing and fattening on the public. He thought there should be a give and take spirit in regard to daylight saving.

Fred A. Campbell.

Mr. Campbell said he had no experience in city politics, but as a representative of organized labor he had done his work nobly, fearlessly and above board, playing every card face up on the table. He elected he would represent the community as well as the labor party which is supporting him and promised every one a fair deal always.

The harbor, he knew, was not self-sustaining and if a proper price could be secured for it it would be better sold, but the latent water power of the Reversing Falls should not be overlooked when any sale was being made.

Daylight saving he considered a "get-together" question. With regard to early closing he said the labor party was in favor of a shorter work day.

William L. Harding.

William L. Harding said he would not make any promises nor outline his position with regard to the questions, as conditions at city hall, if he were successful, might be different from what an outsider might imagine. He promised his best services in case he prove to be a successful candidate.

Charles T. Nevins.

Charles T. Nevins expressed himself as strongly opposed to the system of shutters being taxed for street paving. The matter should be settled by bond issue. The city prided itself on being free from debt. You can't have a live, progressive city without paying money. The money lost by deferring the erection of a nurses' home, he said, would pay for the paving of Brunswick street. He favored daylight saving and in closing said that if he were elected he wanted to be free to use his own judgment in all matters.

THE BLOOD IS THE LIFE.

The blood is the life because it is the nutritive fluid. If the blood becomes very impure, the bones, the muscles and other parts of the body are impaired and finally become diseased. Slighter variations in the quality of the blood, such as are often brought about by breathing the bad air of unventilated rooms, have equally sure though less plain evil effects on the nervous system. Persons that have reason to believe that their blood is not pure should begin to take Hood's Sarsaparilla at once. This medicine has done more than any other in cleansing, enriching and revitalizing the blood and giving strength and tone to all the organs and functions. If you want to be entirely satisfied, insist on having Hood's. Accept no substitute.

AERIAL TRAVEL IN NEAR FUTURE

Twelve Airships Purchased for Routes From Detroit — Mail and Passengers.

Detroit, April 10.—The United States Aerial Express Corporation of Detroit has contracted with the Navy Department at Washington for the purchase of twelve naval airships at $15,500 a ship.

Mr. Dunn, organizer of the corporation, announced that on May 1 airships running between Detroit and Cleveland would initiate the first commercial aerial transportation system of America. The ships purchased from the Navy Department will be used. Each ship has facilities to carry twelve passengers and 2,000 pounds of mail or express.

After the Detroit-Cleveland route is well under way a commercial line between Detroit and Grand Rapids will be established. Also routes from Detroit to Buffalo, Toronto and Indianapolis will be started.

At a later date each ship will have all modern facilities, including electric lights, buffet and a toilet. The fare between Detroit and Cleveland will be $20. Arrangements for this corporation to carry mail are now under way.

The Navy Department is anxious for the project to become a success and agreed to furnish pilots and mechanics.
