GERMAN SAVANT'S DREAM
Partition of Britain, France, Belgium and Russia.
London, Dec. 2.—The Morning Post says that the famous Professor Ernest Haeckel of Jena, the well known disciple of Darwin, has expressed in an interview the opinion that the following fruits of victory are necessary to insure Germany's future:

- 1—Freedom from the tyranny of England, secured by:
2—The invasion of the British tyrannical state by the German army and navy, and the occupation of London.
3—The partition of Belgium, the western portion to fall to Holland and the southeastern portion to be added to Luxembourg, which also should become a German federal state.
4—Germany to obtain the greater part of the British colonies and of the Congo Free State.
5—France to give up a portion of her northeastern provinces.
6—Russia to be reduced to impotency by the re-establishment of the Kingdom of Poland, which should be united with Austria-Hungary.
7—The Baltic provinces of Russia to be restored to Germany.
8—Finland to become an independent kingdom and be united with Sweden.

"ESCAPE" EXPERT AT EMPRESS THEATRE

Big Extra Attraction For Balance of Week — Famous Mystery Performer

This forenoon the manager of the Empress Theatre in Carleton, signed an agreement with LeRoy, the mysterious, who is passing through the city to appear tonight, Friday and again Saturday, in connection with the regular show. LeRoy is one of the best known "escape" men on the stage and has never performed in this territory before. He is particularly astounding in the remarkable manner in which he escapes from ropes, chains, straightjackets and especially the Russian torture crib which is one of the most difficult of all feats. LeRoy employs other devices in demonstrating his almost atomic ability to elude capture and his act will no doubt create a whole lot of comment. It will be shown tonight at both shows.

GREAT MEETING FOR FORWARD MOVEMENT

Representatives of Every Organized Maritime Interest Wanted at Amherst Gathering

J. H. Douglas of Amherst, chairman of the executive committee which has called the great meeting to be held in Amherst on December 17, morning, afternoon and evening, to consider a forward movement for the maritime provinces, has issued an appeal urging that representatives of every organized maritime interest attend. Mr. Douglas places the aim of the conference as "to bring together at one meeting the producer, the consumer and the manufacturer, with a view to foster and conserve throughout our whole people a truly maritime spirit."

Representatives of St. John, Halifax, Charlottetown, Summerside, New Glasgow, Moncton and Amherst are on the general committee, and Sir Robert Borden, with representatives of the three provincial governments and other prominent men representing all shores of public opinion, have been invited to attend. It is desired by the committee to communicate with every organized maritime interest, and Mr. Douglas asks that the name of every such organization, with the names and addresses of its officers, be sent to "The Maritime Forward Movement, Amherst," so that an effort may be made to have them all represented.

WANTS YOUNG SAMPSON TO BE ON HAND TOMORROW
Dan McDonald appeared at the Times office today to accept a challenge of Young Sampson and give him one better. He agrees to a match for $100 or $200 a side, winner to take all, with the entire proceeds of the house to be devoted to the Belgian fund. So confident is McDonald that he offers the match on the condition that he will throw the Syrian three times in an hour or forfeit the money. McDonald suggests that his challenger meet him at the Times office between nine and ten o'clock tomorrow morning with his representatives and the cash to put up the money.

DRILL
The problem of controlling and directing the individual units that make up the immense masses of men that engage in the battles in Europe has been the subject of serious study for years in the staffs of the rival armies. An English military authority in the Encyclopaedia Britannica points out that "so far from being necessary to adopt the catchword of the Bulwark school and to 'organize disorder', and the only known method of doing so is drill. Individualism, pure and simple, is certainly a brief reign during and after the South African war, especially in Great Britain, and both France and Germany considered it for years of the Russo-Japanese war brought military Europe back to the old principles."

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED

HOW TO PRONOUNCE WAR NAMES

Impossible to Reproduce in English With Absolute Correctness All The Names
(Boston Globe.)
There is a laudable desire on the part of the American public to pronounce correctly the foreign names that are daily appearing in the despatches from the seat of war. Both the French and Germans have a scientific method by which their foreign names are adapted to their respective languages in spelling and pronunciation. We have none. Neither have the English, who usually proceed along the lines of least resistance and spell and pronounce as fancy moves, ignoring anything which savors of authority—as, for example the perversion of the beautiful word "Livorno" to the unorthodox "Leghorn."

Words From Western War Area
French and Flemish
Note—Much confusion will be avoided if it is remembered that "ville" does not conform to the French rules for the pronunciation of "ll" followed by a vowel. It is always pronounced "veel" in a short, sharp manner; never "ce-ye" as in "ville" or "famille."

Alitte—Aye-let.
Ally—Aye-ye.
Antwerp (in Spanish, Ambers; in French, Anvers; from "Aan't werp," meaning "at the wharf").
Aube—Obe.
Arrivee—A-vee-koor.
Bar-le-Duc—Bar-luh-duck.
Basle—Bah-lah.
Baumgarten—Bow-powm.
Beauvais—Bow-vay.
Belfort—Bell-fort.
Berry-au-Bac—Ber-ree-o-bahk.
Besancon—Beh-son-son.
Bethune—Bay-ton.
Blamont—Blah-mon.
Bois-le-Duc—Bois-luh-duck.
Bouillon—Boo-yeon.
Boulogne—Boo-lee-yeon.
Bouviere—Boo-vee-yeon.
Brabant-le-roi—Brab-hon-luh-rah.
Braine-le-Comte—Brain-luh-kont.
Cambrai—Kon-bray.

RECENT DEATHS
J. W. Smith, at one time a well known very stable owner in St. John, died yesterday at the residence of his son, 43 Carleton street. He had been ill for two years, having been taken ill soon after the death of his wife. He was 82. The family consists of four sons—W. J., in San Francisco; Fred in St. George and N. B. and Norman in St. John. The funeral has been fixed for Friday at 2 p.m.

HERE ON THEIR WAY TO SCENE OF FIGHTING
Dr. and Mrs. Ralph Hughes of Swift Current, Sask., arrived in the city today. Dr. Hughes has been accepted as a surgeon with the Canadian overseas forces and will leave next week for the front. They will spend a few days in Hampton with Mrs. Hughes' mother, Mrs. J. Crandall, with whom Mrs. Hughes will remain for some time after her husband's departure. Mrs. Hughes was formerly a trained nurse, and hopes to be able to join her husband on the other side in her professional capacity.

ITALY STILL NEUTRAL
London, Dec. 2.—At the opening of the Italian parliament today Premier Salandra said there was no new factor at present which would prompt Italy to alter her policy of neutrality.

MERCHANTS CALL ON MAYOR
Representatives of the St. John Retail Merchants' Association waited on Mayor Frink this morning to protest against the influx of transient traders, who set up business temporarily to skim some of the cream of the Christmas trade. The merchants felt that those who are under heavy expense, keeping up their stores and stocks all the year, should have some protection against such an invasion. The laws governing business houses were discussed, and it is probable that the association will find some means to take action.

SOLDIERS ILL
Peter Bury, a member of the Army Service Corps, stationed at the armory was taken to the hospital this morning suffering from pleurisy. One of the men of the 26th, named Turovitch, was taken to the hospital last evening with an attack of tonsillitis.
