ELGIAN LOYALTY IS THRIVING ON GERMAN OPPRESSIVE METHODS

Germanism Serves To Bind People In Patriotic Resistance

SHOOTINGS DAILY AFFAIRS

Many Notables Deported — The Only Law Is Directed by German Tribunals — The Deadly Blacklist — Statement by Legation in Washington Washington, Jan. 16.—An account of German terrorism in Belgium, showing the methods sanctioned by the Berlin government have served to bind Belgians together in patriotic resistance to the invader is made public by the Belgian legation. The statement was obtained by the legation from a Belgian villager who recently escaped from the crimes. He declares that Belgian tribunals are being shot daily and that very measure of brutality is being practiced by the German authorities against Belgians who remain on their native soil.

M. Max, famous bugmaster of Brussels, says the author of this statement still in a German cell and his successor, M. Lemonnier, has also been imprisoned. The statement follows:

"Three years of persecutions and of cruel and physical sufferings have ought us to such a pitch of glowing thrusts for our friends and of inconceivable hatred of the foe that there is no room left for intellectual subtleties and sentimental reserves.

"Belgium and Northern France happen to be the civilian front in the west front, as you know, has its casualties like the others. Patriots are shot every day; there is an average of thirty ath sentences a month. They belong every class and every party. Among them is one deputy, one burmaster, many people belonging to the professional classes, and of course many are workmen and peasants, including women and children. That is, so far as known, for von Falkenhayn, the MISERABLE FROM STOMACH TROUBLE

Felt Wretched Until He Started
To Take "Fruit-a-lives"

804 Champlain St., Montreal.
"For two years, I was a miserable sufferer from Rheumatism and Stomach Trouble. I had frequent Dispy Spells, and when I took food, felt wretched and sloopy. I suffered from Rheumatism dreadfully, with pains in my back and joints, and my hands swollen.

A friend advised "Fruit-a-lives" and from the outset, they did me good. After the first box, I felt I was getting well and I can truthfully say that "Fruit-a-lives" is the only medicine that helped me." LOUIS LABRIE.

a-lives Limited, Ottawa.

new governor, has ceased to publish the names of his victims, seeing that, instead of terrorizing their compatriots, it only stirred their zeal to emulate them.

Many Notables Deported.
"Among the men imprisoned or deported to Germany are many well-known names; at least ten deputies, senators, no fewer than fifteen burgomasters and aldermen, several judges, and some eminent professors and the post-burgomaster of Brussels is particularly dangerous. M. Max is still in a German cell, and his successor, M. Lemonnier, and Alderman Jacquemin have followed him to prison.

"Such is the fate of all those who openly or secretly oppose German rule, no matter whether they are right or wrong. The only law in the country is dictated by the German tribunals. Even those who do not belong to the various organizations which help the young men to cross the frontier to join the army, circulate forbidden papers, or manage to send news abroad are still exposed every day to the most severe sentences.
If the government chooses to transform the University of Ghent, or to set up a new administration, the professors or the officials are not allowed to send in their resignations and to remain faithful to their pledges. It is not enough not to work for Belgium, and the mere fact of refusing to work against Belgium is punishable as a crime.

"The consequence is that thousands of men and a great number of women are engaged on some secret work, and that all the spies of Germany have not been able to check their activity. I have heard people wonder how, after so many arrests, our organizations are able to go on with their work. There is a very simple explanation. For every man or woman arrested, two others offer to take their place. The whole nation has become a huge secret society.

"Failure is not due to the want of skill and activity of German agents.
Every measure which brutality and cunning can contrive is taken against our patriots. Under the slightest suspicion they are arrested, and after a few days they are deported to Germany and imprisoned. For weeks and months they are isolated, unable to communicate with anyone, even with their advocate, subjected daily to the most searching examination. They are told that their denial is useless, since some of their relatives have been compelled to confess their guilt, or that, if they will, they will assist their crime, they will be allowed to see their wife or child, who is dying. I have myself spent some weeks in the prison of St. Gilles (Brussels), and have been subjected to this kind of torture. If this fails, threats and bribes are used by the examining officers. I know a boy of 16 who was repeatedly struck for refusing to denounce his accomplices.

The Blacklist Deadly.
"Once on the blacklist of the secret police, the patriot, whether guilty or not, will do well to leave the country. If he cannot catch up in the act, the German agents have other means to arrest you. They manage, for instance, to ship a box of Le Livre Belge to a drawer's behind a frame while searching your house, and proceed to convict you for circulating this forbidden paper.
"Another method which has caused my amount of harm is known as the "blacklist." It is composed of names invented by one of Germany's arch spies, Oberleutnant Henry A. deconolom.
Individuals are introduced into the prisoners' cell. Amid sobs and tears he tells him of his own sufferings, and he has posed as the innocent victim of German oppression. Confidence calls for confidence, and you in the act, the German guard the kind sheep succeeds in drawing from him some confession of guilt. The next day the prisoner is called together before the judge and the "sheep" becomes the accuser.

"Some patriots abroad, following the lead of Mr. Morel, have recently exploited the sufferings of the Belgian population as an argument for an early and premature peace. The German newspapers hasten to reproduce the news. It is more harm to the popularity of the Allies than the bombs dropped by British airmen on the army's communication lines, which necessarily caused a certain number of casualties among the civilians. While realizing that air raids are unavoidable, we have often wondered

AT LESS MEAT IF BACK HURTS

Take a Glass of Salts to Flush Kidneys if Bladder
Bothers You

Eating meat regularly eventually processes kidney trouble in some form or other, says a well-known authority, because the urine acid in meat excites the kidneys, they become overworked, get giddy, clog up and cause all sorts of trouble. A particularly bad case is misery in the kidney region; rheumatic twingling, severe headaches, acid stomach, constipation, torpid liver, sleeplessness, bladder and urinary irritation.

The moment your back hurts or kidneys aren't acting right, or if bladder bothers you, get about four ounces of Salts from any good pharmacy.
A tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, has been used for generations to flush kidneys and stimulate their normal activity; also to neutralize the acid in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder disorders.

Salts cannot injure anyone, it is a delightful effervescent lithiaer drink which millions of men and women take now and then to keep their kidneys and urinary organs clean, thus dusting serious kidney disease.

COCONUT OIL MAKES A Splendid Shampoo

You want to keep your hair in good condition, be careful what you wash it with.

Use prepared shampoos or anything else, that contains too much alkali, dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle and is very harmful. Just plain sifted coconut oil (which is pure entirely greaseless), is much better than anything else you can use for washing. It is just as easily absorbed as any oil, and it doesn't clog the pores.
It simply moistens your hair with water and it is in. One or two teaspoon-fuls will make an abundance of rich, lather, and cleanses the hair and scalp thoroughly. The lather rises out and removes every particle of dust, dandruff and excessive oil. The oil dries quickly and evenly, and it is fine and silky, bright, fluffy easy to manage.

You can get purified coconut oil at any drug store. It is very cheap, a few ounces is enough to last you in the family for months.

Dangerous Gas and Acids That Hurt the Stomach—Sour the Food Cause Dyspepsia, Indigestion Recommends a Safe Way to Treat Stomach Trouble at Home.

Many stomach sufferers who are always full of gas and whose stomachs burn with acid after nearly every meal think these things are the RESULT of indigestion when in reality they are the CAUSE.
It is just as foodstuffs give artificial diseases such as peptic, etc., as it would be for a man who had stepped on a tack to rub liniment on his foot without removing the tack.

Some stomachs generate too much gas and acid. Gas distends the stomach walls causing a full, bloated oppressive feeling while the acid irritates and inflames the lining of the stomach. Naturally the food ferments and sours, digestion is often delayed and stomach misery is the result. Artificial digestants will push this sour, fermenting mass into the intestines and so relieve the stomach pain but the acid still remains in the stomach to generate more gas and produce more trouble at the next meal.

If you are using digestive aids after meals drop them for a while and instead get a few 5-grain tablets of pure bisphosphated magnesia from any druggist and take two with each meal. Bisphosphated Magnesia does not digest food but will neutralize the excessive acid in your stomach, keep the food sweet and will drive the gas and bloated right out of your body. As Magnesia is prepared in various forms be sure to get Bisphosphated Magnesia for this purpose as it is not a laxative and in this refined form will not injure the stomach in any way.
