AN INDIAN was struck by a locomotive on the Intercolonial Railway on Tuesday evening on the Newcastle side of the Northwest Railway Bridge. His head was very badly cut and it was thought by Dr. Freeman that the injuries he sustained would prove fatal. Yesterday, however, the man was a little better.

MESSES. MACKENZIE & Co's DRUG STORE has lately been very nicely painted and fitted up, and without any preter sions to rival the more ambitious establishments in large cities, is probably one of the neatest stores in the province, and will be found furnished with an excellent stock of drugs, brushes, toilet articles, and other goods usually found in such estab.

FIRE was discovered about three o'clock on Sunday morning last in Mr. Daniel Desmond's barn, Water Street, incendiarism being suspected. Fortunately, it was extinguished before much damage was lone. It is not long since Mr. Desmond lost a barn by fire from the same site, which he attributed to the same cause as that which is suspected in connection with the attempt of Sunday morning.
