RECENT DEATHS.

W. T. STEPHENS.

The death of W. T. Stephens, a checker in the L. C. Co. occurred at the General Public Hospital about half-past nine last evening. He was taken ill with pleuro-pneumonia a couple of days ago, and removed to the hospital yesterday afternoon, but all efforts to save his life were unavailing. The deceased was a son of the late F. T. Stephens of this city. He is survived by one brother, Charles W., and two sisters, Lucy and Edith, all of St. John.

MARTIN DOYLE.

Martin Doyle, aged 102 years died at St. George a few days ago and was buried on Tuesday. Mr. Doyle came from Ireland to New Brunswick. He was physically and mentally well until two days before his death which was due to congestion of the lungs.

JOSEPH MONTEITH.

TRURO, N. S., April 17.—Joseph Monteith, a well-known resident farmer of Matfield, died at his home yesterday, aged 78 years. Mr. Monteith was in his time and up to the time of his retirement as a farmer, one of the most noted shipbuilders of Nova Scotia. He learned the art of creating fast and famous ships out of Nova Scotia timber as early as twenty years of age and by the time he was sixty-five he had built a craft for about every two years of his life that intervened. The most noted of his vessels was the "Ears-cliff." This was his largest. Three others were the Senator, Gloaming, and Grandee. Mr. Monteith intended this fall to remove to the West, where three of his sons reside. His daughter Louise survives him. Mrs. Monteith died three years ago. Douglas, their oldest son, died one year ago in Dawson City. Alexander, another son, was lost at sea, while sailing one of his father's vessels. Fred, Frank and Northrup are the sons in the West. Miss Louise Monteith kept house for her aged father, and intended removing with him to the West.

PHILIP MURPHY.

REXTON, N. B., April 16.—Philip Murphy, one of the wealthiest and most respected farmers of this county, died at his home at South Branch this morning at the age of 71 years. His wife, who was Miss Mary Burns, died some years ago. Mr. Murphy was a native of Ireland. He is survived by six sons, Patrick, Daniel, Joseph, Thomas and Philip of South Branch, and James, living in the States; also two daughters, Misses Anna and Aggie of Boston. The funeral will be held Friday morning at South Branch and interment will be made in the Catholic cemetery. Thomas Murphy, sr., of South Branch is a brother of deceased.

M. DAVIS.

MONTREAL, Que., April 17.—Moses Davis of M. Davis & Company, aged sixty-two, died of heart disease last night in the house of Mrs. Laurin, who said she had known him for some time under the name of Duchene. He was married to a daughter of Hon. J. K. Ward.

MRS. M. D. PRIDE.

AMHERST, April 17.—Mrs. M. D. Pride died at noon today after an illness extending many months. She was 61 years of age and was held in high esteem by a large host of friends. Besides her husband, she was survived by three children: Mrs. Foster, living at home; William of this city, and Harry, manager of the Amherst Boot and Shoe Company's agency at Halifax.

J. EDWARD SNODGRASS.

YOUNG'S COVE, Queens Co., April 16.—J. Edward Snodgrass, youngest son of Isaac Snodgrass passed peacefully away Sunday night, April 16th, at his father's home, after a lingering illness, of consumption. He was 29 years old, and leaves a sorrowing widow, father, three brothers, Thomas and Herbert, in the United States, and Bruce at home; four sisters, Mrs. J. Kennedy, Mrs. W. H. Fowler, of Montana, Miss Margaret and Miss Hattie at home. Deceased was well known and by his kind and genial disposition he had won many friends who extend to the sorrowing ones their deepest sympathy. His sufferings were borne with Christian fortitude and as the last moments drew near he assured his loved ones that his spirit was bound in resignation to the Divine will. He was a member of the Methodist church and also belonged to the I. O. F. The funeral was held on Tuesday afternoon and was largely attended.

JAMES N. SLOAT.

CENTREVILLE, April 17.—James N. Sloat, of Tracey's Mills, departed this life on the 15th inst. and was buried in the Baptist cemetery at Centreville. Some eight months ago he fell from a building, the injury resulting in paralysis of his lower limbs. His sufferings since that time were intense but he bore it with Christian resignation. He was a consistent member of the Baptist church. He was the eldest son of the late James Sloat, whose previous home was in York county. He leaves a wife and five children to mourn. Rev. Messrs. Freeman and Bonnell conducted the services at the house and church. The Foresters also took part at the burial. He was about 70 years of age.

MRS. JAMES CAIN.

CENTREVILLE, April 17.—Mrs. Jas. Cain, of Knoxford, was buried in the Episcopal cemetery on the 18th inst. This aged lady was a daughter of the late Samuel Knight, whose home was formerly at White's Cove, Queen Co. For a long time her health has been on the decline and recently paralysis was one of her many bodily ailments which ended in death. She was one who was ever ready to minister to the wants of all who required assistance. A member of the Episcopal church and a devoted Christian, she died at the age of seventy years esteemed by all who had the pleasure of her acquaintance. Her husband and three children preceded her. She leaves two sons and two daughters to mourn, one of the latter is a trained nurse who resides in the United States; one son has made a home in the far west and the other, with whom she lived, resides in Knoxford. Rev. Mr. Dunham officiated at the funeral.

WEDDINGS.

FORD-SIMPSON.

A home wedding took place at the residence of Mrs. Thomas Simpson, 25 Carleton street, yesterday morning, when Mrs. Simpson's daughter, Miss Lillian Irene, was married to Charles W. Ford of Sackville. The ceremony was performed by Rev. S. Howard, pastor of the Exmouth street Methodist church, in the presence of relatives and friends of the bride and groom. The bride, who was unattended, was given away by her brother, Harry Simpson of Boston. She was becomingly gowned in a travelling costume of brown broadcloth with trimmings of brown velvet and white broadcloth, and wore a hat to match. She carried a handsome bouquet of roses. After the ceremony was performed a wedding breakfast was served. Mr. and Mrs. Ford left on the steamer Yarmouth for Nova Scotia. After their honeymoon they will take up their residence in Sackville. Mr. Ford is an alderman of Sackville and holds a responsible position in the firm of M. Wood & Sons, Limited. The bride was for several years connected with the teaching staff of the public schools of the city, having resigned a position in the Winter street school a short time ago. Many beautiful gifts testified to the good wishes of her friends. Among the remembrances received was a very handsome silver candelabra, the gift of her former associates in the Winter street school.

NUTTER-PADDOCK.

On Tuesday afternoon in St. Mary's church, William G. Nutter was united in marriage to Miss Margaret I. Paddock, daughter of the late Thos. Paddock of Kingston. Rev. Dr. W. O. Raymond performed the ceremony. The bride is a member of the choir of St. Mary's church, which rendered special music. Among the many presents received by the bride were handsome tokens from the choir and from fellow employees in M. R. A. Ltd. The happy couple are on a honeymoon trip to the States.

STERLING-KINGSTON.

At St. James' church rectory at eight o'clock Tuesday night Rev. J. E. Hand united in marriage Walter Sterling and Miss Lucy Kingston, both of St. Britain street.

CAMERON-STAFFORD.

MARYSVILLE, N. B., April 17.—A very pretty wedding took place at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John A. Cameron, Pennist, a few miles above here, at eight o'clock last evening, when their fifth daughter, Maude, was united in marriage to Newton Stafford of Marysville. Rev. H. H. Ferguson performed the ceremony, only the friends and relatives of the contracting parties being present. The presents received were both costly and numerous, showing in what high esteem the young couple are held by their many friends.

BAD FIRE AT COBALT

TORONTO, April 17.—A fire which started in the little town of Cobalt, near the famous Cobalt silver mines, tonight, has about wiped out the village. The houses were all frame and of the class that insurance companies would not accept as risks, consequently the loss will fall on the people heavily. At eight tonight the fire is still burning and the extent of the damage is not known.
