PEAR HAS SEIZED ON ST. JOHN FOLK

(Special Cor. of Montreal Heraid.)

ST. JOHN, N. B., Nov. 2.—St. John now has nine cases of smallpox. If there were a thousand the people could hardly be more frightened. Everybody is being vaccinated, and the doctors are reaping a rich harvest. At $1 a scrape some physicians have earned over $100 a day, and young doctors, whose doors are rarely darkened by patients have made enough in the last few days to buy their winter's fuel or to pay for their engagement ring. A sad feature of the situation is that some of the doctors have allowed the commercial to outweigh the other consideration. There are some practitioners who have hardly lived up to the traditioners who have hardly lived up to the traditioners who have hardly lived up to the traditioners are true, have fallen far short of showing even common manbood in the face of the danger threatening the community. There are stories, seemingly well authenticated, of physicians—old practitioners—who, when they discovered that a patient had Jolly Supper by the Members of the Hampton Club.

HAMPTON, Kings Co., Nov. 2,-Last night the members of the Hampton Curling Club sat down to an excellent supper at the Vendome Hotel given by the married men to the bachelors of the club, the latter having been the victors in last winters' con-test in the match "married versus single." Four large tables were handsomely laid in the large dining room of the hotel, and for three hours there was nothing but jollity and good feeling among the company present. The president, R. H. Smith, sat in the post f honor, and was supported on the left and right by such veteran curiers as George W. Wilson, J. Ernest Whittaker, William H. March, Dr. S. G. Ritchie and Revs. W. W. Lodge and C. D. Schofield, while Secretary Fred Barnes, Dr. Lee Langstroth, J. M. the honors at the lower end of the room. Grace was said by the Rev. C. D. Schofield, and after the appetites McCurdy and his courteous lady waiters, the company came to their feet and drank the first toast "To the King" with honors, accompanied by a verse of God Save the King. Then each of which was introduced and responded to by those immediately honored. Jest and repartee flew up and down the tables, and all seemed possessed of the very spirit of fun and good feeling.

A very interesting part of the proceedings was the presentation of cups and medals to the winners of last sea-son's matches. Of the former the new comers' cup, presented by Thomas C. Donald, and the married and single cup, presented by Thomas McA. Stewart, were both won by Secretary Fred Barnes.

The medals, however, all went to the married men, who naturally were in high feather at their success. The Evans rink medal was won by Fred A.McAndrews; the Evans points medal and the Wilson points medal both fell to the lot of J. Ernest Whittaker, and the Humphrey medal to William A. March, all of whom, after being decorated, extolled the prowess of the benedicts in every contest against their rivals. heir rivals.

The toast of "The president and officers," proposed by Geo. W. Wilson, brought responses from R. H. Smith, W. H. March and Fred Barnes. "The narried men," proposed in a capital speech by the Rev. C. D. Schofield, brought out the latent speaking talent of Fred A. McAndrews, W. H. March, of Fred A. McAndrews, W. H. March, J. M. Scovil and H. Ernest Fowler, whilst that of "The single men," by J. E. Whittaker, found ready and fluent talkers in F. Barnes, Dr. Lee Langstroth, T. C. Donald and Dr. S. G. Ritchie, the latter promising to go to the help of the married men in the contests of 1902, all things being pro-pitious. Rev. W. W. Lodge in a feelng address referred to the loss the would sustain by the removal of one of its oldest and best friends, and he health of any such was cordially drank. J. E. Whittaker spoke of the struggles and successes of the club during the nine years of its existence,

"Our visitors" brought out brief but pleasant responses from John March,
Archibald Brittain and Fred M. Brittain and Fred M. proul, the latter offering a medal for competition on such terms as may be decided by the executive committee. A song, The Wreck of the Julie Plante, had been sung by Dr. Ritchie, and now all joined in a final toast, "To our "To our next merry meeting" and singing Auld Lang Syne. A verse of the national anthem brought this most enjoyable gathering to a close shortly before midnight.

On Monday evening next there will be a meeting of the ratepayers of the TURKEY GIVES IN.

But France Will Insist on Still More Concessions.

In Compensation for the Moral Injury Caused to Her by the Sultan's Conduct.

PARIS, Nov. 2.—The despatch of Admiral Caillard's squadron from Toulon to Turkish waters has already had its effect. The French foreign office this morning received a telegram from M Bapst, councillor of the French legation at Constantinople, announcing that the Sultan, resterday, sent him a message accepting all the French claims, including the Lorando claim. But, the correspondent of the Associated Press is authorized to say that the French government will refuse to accept this surrender as a satisfactory settlement of the difficulty, as to Tewik Pacha, Ottoman minister of foreign affairs, a note asking how the Turkish government proposes to pay the Lorando claim affairs, a note asking how the Turkish government proposes to pay the Lorando claim and demanding the execution of the Sultan's irade dealing with the matter.

The note will also request satisfaction regarding the rights of France which are defined in the various capitulations and treaties, and which in some cases have not been expected, and in others have been encroached upon by Turkey.

Admiral Caillard is expected to reach his destination tomorrow. The foreign office has received no news from him since his division left the other-fidvisions of the Mediterranean squadron en route for Turkish waters, four days ago. It is pointed out that the absence of news is not surprising, as the instructions to Admiral Caillard were to steer due south and avoid passing in sight of Bonfacie, Corcia or traversing the Strait of Messina, in order to prevent his movements being signalled. The vessels of the division carried only a normal supply of coal, but this would be much more than sufficient to enable them to steam 1,500 miles, the estimated distance they must cover before reaching their destination.

It is expected that Admiral Caillard will be joined by the terpedo cruiser Condor, which is stationed at Constantinople. It is also probable that the armored cruiser Amiral Charner, which arrived at Port Said Oct. 31 from the far east, is being sheld there in order to loin Admiral Caillard if needed.

It is further reported that three other warships are held in readiness at Toulon to reinforce him should their presence be necessary.

PARIS, Nov. 3.—Despatches from Rome assert that the second division of the Italian Mediterranean squadron which, as announced yesterday, left for Turkish waters with the Eastern Mediterranean for some time. It is believed that the Hritish squadron and wat Pirans, Greece, will be ordered to proceed to Belrout, Syria.
