

THE STANDARD'S PAGE OF SPORTS

HANK GRIFFIN IS DEAD

THE LATE HANK GRIFFIN.

Ann Harbor, Maine, May 3.—Hank Griffin, well-known colored heavy-weight pugilist, is dead at his home here, after an attack of typhoid fever, which lasted nearly a month. Griffin, who was 41 years of age, had been conducting a school of instruction in boxing and a gymnasium in Ann Ar-

RESULTS OF THE BIG LEAGUES

National League.
 At Philadelphia:—
 Boston . . . . . 10020000—4-12-1
 Philadelphia . . . . . 01001000-3-3-2
 Batteries—Pfeifer and Graham;
 Beebe and Doolin.
 At Brooklyn:—
 New York . . . . . 00000200-3-6-5
 Brooklyn . . . . . 00000000-0-4-2
 Batteries—Raymond and Wilson;
 Rucker and Bergen.
 At Pittsburgh:—
 Pittsburgh . . . . . 10000222-6-10-1
 St. Louis . . . . . 00010000-4-10-1
 Batteries—Leifield, Nagle and Gibson;
 Harmon, Geiger and Bresnahan.
 At Chicago:—
 Chicago . . . . . 00000202x-6-9-2
 Cincinnati . . . . . 00000200-2-0-1
 Batteries—Brown and Archer;
 Snuggs and McLean.

Team	Won	Lost	P.C.
Philadelphia	9	5	.643
Pittsburgh	9	5	.643
Chicago	9	5	.643
New York	8	6	.571
Cincinnati	4	7	.364
Boston	6	12	.333
Brooklyn	4	12	.333
St. Louis	4	8	.333

American League.
 At St. Louis:—
 Detroit . . . . . 00010010-5-10-1
 St. Louis . . . . . 00010010-2-4-0
 Batteries—Lafitte and Stange;
 Willis, Gregory and Stephens.
 At Cleveland:—
 Cleveland . . . . . 10400002-8-10-3
 Chicago . . . . . 300001102-7-9-2
 Batteries—Gregg and Land; Young,
 Scott, Walsh and Sullivan.
 At New York:—
 Philadelphia . . . . . 03030023-13-17-4
 New York . . . . . 20200000-4-4-1
 Batteries—Coombs and Livingstone;
 Fisher, Quinn and Sweeney.
 At Boston:—
 Boston . . . . . 10200102x-6-9-4
 Washington . . . . . 01010010-3-6-2
 Batteries—Pope and Nannamaker;
 Groom, Gray and Street, Almsmith.

Team	Won	Lost	P.C.
Detroit	16	2	.889
New York	8	6	.571
Boston	8	8	.500
Chicago	7	8	.467
Washington	7	8	.467
Philadelphia	7	8	.467
Cleveland	6	11	.353
St. Louis	4	13	.238

Eastern League.
 At Baltimore:—
 Baltimore . . . . . 24020008-10-14-3
 Montreal . . . . . 10100000-2-11-6
 Batteries—Adkins and Byers and Egan;
 Leclair, Stanfield and Curtis and Hardy.
 At Jersey City:—
 Buffalo . . . . . 2000001000-3-6-2
 Jersey City . . . . . 0010011000-3-8-2
 Batteries—Stroud, Vovink and Kuller;
 Kessler and Townsman.
 At Newark:—
 Newark . . . . . 001010000-2-2-2
 Toronto . . . . . 40220000-3-6-2
 Batteries—Lee, Cull, Cleary and McCarthy,
 McAllister, Mueller and Koerber,
 Phelps.

BRITISH POLO PLAYERS BEATEN
 Lake Wood, N. J., May 3.—The British cavalry officers who are practicing here for the international polo tournament were defeated by a mixed team of English and American players today. The score was 7 to 6.

CAMERON WILL RUN SHRUBB

FRED CAMERON

Who will race Shrubb on Saturday night.
 Boston, May 3.—What promises to be one of the most exciting professional foot races ever held in the Hub will take place when Al Shrubb, the British champion, and Freddy Cameron, the B.A.A. Marathon winner of 1910, meet in a special 12-mile race at Boston Arena next Saturday night.
 Both runners are well known to country over and their performances have been nothing short of marvellous on the running track. Cameron's fame rests chiefly on his wonderful powers over the Marathon route. He has won many of the Canadian classics, but his greatest victory was the winning of the Boston Marathon a year ago, when he covered the Ashland to Boston course in the fast time of 2h. 25m. 59.53c. Since this win the young Nova Scotian has forsaken the long grind and claims the championship at 12 and 15-mile routes.
 Al Shrubb's record on the track is almost a household word in athletics. Shrubb has defeated the world up to the 15-mile distance and his recent performances have been equally brilliant. In the wrestling card that has been added to the programme, in which Jack Leon, the Russian giant, will meet John Persell, the Italian champion, the Hub will witness a great athletic carnival.

LEAGUES SHORT OF BASEMEN

Baseball managers in both the American and National leagues are complaining of the scarcity of good first basemen, and have ordered their scouts to unearth men who can be developed into guardians of the opening pop. There are plenty of infielders, outfielders, catchers and twirlers being picked up every spring, but few initial sackers.
 In the American league, there is only one real first baseman, Hal Chase, manager of the New York Yankees, is the king of 'em all. Harry Davis of the Athletics, was a grand man not long ago, but he has slowed up to a walk on the defense, and if he hits 250 this year I will be surprised. He is there with the thinking, but you have some physical ability besides to win games these days.
 Cleveland has big George Stovall, and while there is a lot of good baseball left in him, he is reaching the veteran stage, and each season sees him slowing up more and more. He is a heavy chouter when he hits the ball, but his eye is bad and clever pitchers with a good change of pace find him easy money.
 Of the youngsters, Washington has a promising lad in John Henry, who thought he was a catcher until Jimmy McAleer took hold of the team and convinced him otherwise. He looked like a million dollars this spring. Chase believes McAleer has a swell youngster in Henry. He covers a heap of ground, can come in on bunts with lightning speed and covers deep back of and to the left of the cushion.
 The Boston Red Sox are trying out two youths, Bradley and Williams. Neither has yet set the world afloat. John L. Taylor has ordered his scouts to keep a sharp lookout for new talent in the minor leagues.
 The White Sox have a youngster named Tom Jones and he may develop, but he looks pretty green, according to reports from the windy city.
 Hughie Jennings' one weak spot in the first, Gainer is playing the position for Detroit now, but he is very raw material.
 Newman is back at first for the Browns. He didn't look any too good last season. He may do better this year.
 In the National league there are three men who can be called first class basemen. They are Hoblitzel of the Red Legs, Konecny of the Cardinals and Merkle of the Giants.
 Chance of the Cubs and Tenney of the Phillies are getting more of the ball hard, but it is a mark for fast infielders who can throw him out on Hicks that five years ago he would have beaten easily.
 Chance is already looking for material to replace himself. He appreciates the fact that he is slowing up. It is doubtful if he will be able to play more than eighty games this year for the Cubs.
 Pittsburgh is playing Hunter, a new man from the American Association, and Fred Clarke believes he will develop, but he is far from being up to the standard at present.
 Charlie Doolin has not settled on his regular first sacker yet. Cleon of the field, who was the regular guardian of the sack last season for the Phillies, is beginning to go back. Luderus and Hill are trying to land in the berth, also. Luderus wasn't good enough for the Cubs, so it is hard to figure how he can do any better in the town of slumber. Hill has not yet had much opportunity.

JIMMY BARRY HANDS OUT KNOCK FOR CARL MORRIS

CARL MORRIS THE SAPULP WHITE HOPE.

(Winnipeg Tribune.)
 Carl Morris, the terror of the heavy-weight division, coming champion of the world.
 Carl Morris, forefusher, bluffer, novice, dub, faker, and general allround joke.
 "Look on this picture and on that," and carefully decide which one you shall choose.
 Carl Morris, the idol of the public and the white man's hope, or Carl Morris, a gigantic and stupendous hoax, the cat's-paw of shrewd financiers who, with Morris, are accumulating coin at the expense of public sentiment.
 There has been considerable skepticism floating around since Morris dawdled on the pugilistic horizon and was hailed as the rising sun of the stastic world.
 It has remained for Charles Lavine, manager of Young Mahoney, to make the definite statement that Carl Morris is a champion aspirant with a string attached; that the results of his "fights" are known long before the men enter the ring, and that his massive bulk is being used to lure the easy dollars from a gullible public.
 How true is Lavine's statement remains for time to tell, but the fact that so many unpleasant rumors along this identical line are being whispered around, place Morris in an unpleasant light, and therefore, it is generally hoped that the "Hope's" promoters will dispel the cloud by matching Morris against a really good man whose reputation will preclude the possibility of his "laying down" to the Sapulpa giant.

B. & P. MEN WON BY A DEFAULT

On Black's alleys last night the O. H. Warwick team in the commercial league, forfeited the four points to the Brock and Paterson team, which made the following score:

Team	Wins	Losses	Points
Brock and Paterson	31	93	275-9123
Ryan	27	96	79-248-8223
Gaskin	57	64	232-74
B. Paterson	75	87	248-81
D. Patterson	86	100	87-273-91
Masters	402	447	412-1261

Tonight's Bowling.
 It will be a big night tonight on Black's alleys when the members of the bowling club will turn out in force and each man will do his best to make the highest score and win the prize. The members are requested to be at the alleys at 7 o'clock and after the bowling refreshments will be served.

HARRY LEWIS BEATEN.
 Paris, May 3.—Leo Houck, of Lancaster, Pa., the middleweight pugilist, tonight won from Harry Lewis, the American welterweight and welterweight champion of England, on points in a twenty-round fight.

BASEBALL LEAGUE IN CHATHAM

Chatham, N. B., May 3.—The committee appointed to deal with the baseball situation met last evening and decided to have a local league for the summer until such time as a professional league is formed. The members of the committee are G. T. O'Brien, chairman; J. C. Godfrey, H. McLean, Thomas May, W. Watling and G. H. Lounsbury. Three teams entered the league—the Stars, Victors and Y. M. C. A.—and the first round will be May 15, Stars vs. Victors; May 18, Victors vs. Y. M. C. A.; May 22, Y. M. C. A. vs. Victors. Two games a week, Monday and Thursday evenings, will be played. The committee also strongly favored the proposed league between Halifax, Amherst, Moncton and Chatham. In order to raise funds to equip and pay the necessary expenses of the team, the committee has decided on a unique and popular scheme. A model S. Ford automobile has been secured and will be given to the holder of the lucky ticket. These will be sold at ten cents each.

In Duck Land.
 (Puck.)
 Dolly Duck—Aren't such bold things, aren't they?
 Doris Duck—Yes. Isn't it awful the way those drakes will stand around and stare whenever we walk over a dry spot?

"MASTER MASON"
 An Excellent Tobacco

Cut from our original "American Navy" plug. Equally good as a smoke or as a chew. Made from the finest American leaf tobacco.

SOLD BY ALL DEALERS.
 Manufactured By:
 ROCK CITY TOBACCO CO., QUEBEC.

D.&J. McCallum's
 Perfection

The Spirit of Bonnie Scotland
 WILLIAM E. McINTYRE, Limited,
 St. John, N. B., Agents

THE TARTARS AND SWEEPS WON GAMES

There were two games in the city league on the Victoria alleys last night. The Tartars took four points from the Athletics with a total pinfall of 1237 to 1191. In the second game the Sweeps took three points from the Stars with a total score of 1263 to 1239. The individual scores of the game are as follows:

Sweeps.
 Harrison . . . 87 76 88 251-8323
 Garnett . . . 79 77 100 256-8513
 Dalton . . . 88 77 65 231-77
 Finley . . . 85 80 97 262-8712
 McKean . . . 72 106 85 263-8723
 412 416 435 1263

Stars.
 Foshay . . . 79 81 90 250-8313
 Ugent . . . 74 101 72 252-84
 Henderson . 70 70 81 233-7713
 G. Smith . . 77 82 87 246-82
 Chase . . . 81 89 88 258-86
 387 429 423 1239

Tartars.
 Corgrove . . 74 80 82 236-7823
 Littlejohn . 112 85 89 286-9513
 Labbe . . . 75 88 71 234-78
 Stevens . . 80 78 70 234-78
 Riley . . . 77 84 86 247-8213
 413 415 404 1237

Athletics.
 McGrath . . 83 82 84 249-83
 Murphy . . . 78 81 79 238-7913
 Fitzgerald . 81 81 83 245-8123
 Rogers . . . 82 70 71 223-7413
 McCarthy . . 72 83 81 239-7823
 386 397 398 1191

INTERCOLLEGIATE HOCKEY.

A meeting of the representatives of the universities of New Brunswick, Acadia and Mount Allison has been called for Friday next in St. John. The gathering was called by the trustees of the intercollegiate hockey cup at the request of the U. N. B. They have asked that the disputed game with Acadia should be decided to them. The trustees hope that the dispute will be settled by the representatives at the coming meeting without interference on their part.

Opera House

Helen Grayce and Company
 Including LAWRENCE BROOKE.
 Programme for the Remaining First Week:

TONIGHT
Little Brother of the Rich

Friday Matinee, by Special Request
WHEN KNIGHTHOOD WAS IN FLOWER.
 Friday Evening:
SQUAW MAN.

Saturday Matinee and Evening:
HOUSE OF SEVEN THOUSAND CANDLES.

List of Plays for Second Week is as follows:
 Monday Evening,
LITTLE BROTHER OF THE RICH
 Tuesday Evening,
THE CLANSMAN.
 Wednesday Matinee,
BEYOND PARADISE.
 Wednesday Evening,
COWBOY AND THE LADY.
 Thursday Evening,
SQUAW MAN.
 Friday Evening,
THE WIDFIRE.

Saturday Matinee,
COWBOY AND THE LADY.
 Saturday Evening,
 (To be announced.)

Prices Evening: 15, 25, 35, and 50c.
 Prices, Matinees 10 and 25c.

This is without doubt the strongest company that has ever visited St. John.

JIMMY BARRY WHO SAYS MORRIS IS A "GOOSE."

Lavine's opinions of Morris' ability are based on comments made to him personally by Jim Barry, the noted light heavyweight, and Lavine admits his willingness to accept anything Barry says as the gospel truth.
 "Barry was at the Morris-Schreck affair," said Lavine to The Tribune "and he has opinions of his own about the way the public was fooled."
 Here are Barry's comments as told by Lavine:
 "I went to the 'fight' with an open mind. Naturally, I had my doubts as to the genuineness of the affair, despite the tremendous excitement that had literally paralyzed business in the town. But I put all suspicious feelings on one side and resolved to be open-handed and fair in whatever conclusion I arrived at. But I left the ring-side in disgust. It was my positive opinion that Schreck could have put Morris down and out at almost any stage of the proceeding."
 There's a Reason.
 "Of course, one can hardly blame Schreck for being unable to resist a luring offer to lay down, as I believe he did, for he needs the coin, and there was no more . . . any other . . . way. Had Schreck announced his intention of doing his best against the Sapulpa gent, there would never have been a Schreck-Morris encounter. Schreck would have won, and the goose that has been laying golden eggs in a gilded nest, would have been squelched forever."
 "Look at the string of bouts that Morris has pulled off. They were either against broken down fighters, or against fairly good men, who needed the coin. This is not a pleasant statement to make, but neither is it pleasant to let one's thoughts dwell on a gullible public being systematically fleeced of their hard-earned cash and at the same time, being lulled into the belief that a real Hope is forging his way to Johnson's solar plexus."
 "But there is no white man's hope. Morris is the only one that has the slightest claim to distinction, and his hold on public confidence is or should be, as slim as the chances of a drop of mercury standing still in the centre of a slanting mirror."
Not A Born Boxer.
 "He can't fight. That's the whole secret. Morris is bigheavy and clumsy. He is a fine specimen of the well developed man. He was a locomotive fireman, and he is still a locomotive fireman, so far as ability is concerned. As a boxer he has no more possibilities of becoming champion than a fish on land has a chance to crawl back to the ocean."
 "Stand up in front of Morris, close your eyes and let your arms hang down beside you, and Morris could probably send over a sleep-producer, and then again perhaps he couldn't."

And About Wagers.

"If you feel like banking your money on Morris to put away several more mediocre pugilists, you'll undoubtedly win, unless those who are exploiting him decide that the game is up and bank all their winnings that the fight will go the other way; but take my tip—don't lay any wagers that Morris will ever get near the top."
 Charles Lavine backed up these assertions by saying: "I tried to get Morris matched with Mahoney, but there was no more . . . any other . . . way. Had Schreck announced his intention of doing his best against the Sapulpa gent, there would never have been a Schreck-Morris encounter. Schreck would have won, and the goose that has been laying golden eggs in a gilded nest, would have been squelched forever."
 "Look at the string of bouts that Morris has pulled off. They were either against broken down fighters, or against fairly good men, who needed the coin. This is not a pleasant statement to make, but neither is it pleasant to let one's thoughts dwell on a gullible public being systematically fleeced of their hard-earned cash and at the same time, being lulled into the belief that a real Hope is forging his way to Johnson's solar plexus."
 "But there is no white man's hope. Morris is the only one that has the slightest claim to distinction, and his hold on public confidence is or should be, as slim as the chances of a drop of mercury standing still in the centre of a slanting mirror."
Not A Born Boxer.
 "He can't fight. That's the whole secret. Morris is bigheavy and clumsy. He is a fine specimen of the well developed man. He was a locomotive fireman, and he is still a locomotive fireman, so far as ability is concerned. As a boxer he has no more possibilities of becoming champion than a fish on land has a chance to crawl back to the ocean."
 "Stand up in front of Morris, close your eyes and let your arms hang down beside you, and Morris could probably send over a sleep-producer, and then again perhaps he couldn't."