

THE "LINE-UP" SYSTEM IS RESTORED IN NEW YORK

Noted Criminals Paraded Before Masked Detectives Force Every Day

WAS ABOLISHED BY EX-COMMISSIONER

Gives Sleuths a Chance to Study Worst Type of Prisoners at Close Range and Familiarize Themselves with them.

Brooklyn, Feb. 11.—The "line-up" was re-established today in Brooklyn as well as in Manhattan, and ninety detectives assembled at local police headquarters, masked, to look over the prisoners who had been gathered in the police dragnet during the twenty-four preceding hours.

There were seven prisoners, three on charges of burglary, two for other felonies, a pick-pocket brought in by Lieutenant McCloskey from the Williamsburg bridge this morning, and a swindler. Acting Captain Coughlin read slips giving the history of each of the prisoners, as far as it was known to the authorities, and as each was brought into the focus of the detectives' gaze, he read off the record. The precinct men looked the captives over and made mental notes of their general appearance. After it was all over, the men departed.

The re-adoption of the line-up is regarded by the officers as a good thing. It was abolished by Commissioner Waldo, who contended that the daily summons of the detectives to headquarters to look over the prisoners of the day was a waste of time. The general belief is that the line-up is a good thing and kept the detective force posted as to the appearance of crooks.

The exhibition of prisoners arrested for serious offences will be continued daily. Half of the detective force will be called to headquarters each morning, the product staffs alternating. Every detective "captain" will be on hand daily, and at least half of his men will be with him. The idea is to leave some of the detectives in the precinct offices every day to attend to the routine business, but the men will have a chance to become acquainted with the faces of prisoners who are arrested for serious crimes.

Many of the detectives who were put on the plain clothes force by Commissioner Waldo are young men who have had little experience in detective work, and who have no knowledge of the personality of the professional criminal.

200 Detectives Inspect Prisoners

In Manhattan
At headquarters in Manhattan today half the detective force of Manhattan, the Bronx and Richmond (300 men) appeared for the "line-up." Forty prisoners, among them one woman, who had been caught in the police dragnet last night, faced the black-masked detectives. The prisoners were ranged on three steps of the 20x50 platform in the gymnasium. Promptly at nine o'clock Inspector Faurot and Deputy Commissioner Rubin, at the head of the line of detectives, filed into the room.

Inspector Faurot indicated one man, gave his name, told what he was arrested for, and then gave as much of his record as was available. The detectives present were asked to speak out if they recognized the man and said that any one of them had committed any crime other than those that were known to be on the police records. Out of the forty prisoners, half were recognized by one or more of the detectives present, and they told where and for what alleged crime they had been previously arrested.

The one woman who faced the detectives was Jennie Ness, 19 years old, who is accused of having made off with $73 worth of jewelry, the property of Jacob Wateler of 651 Fifth street, on November 28 last.

As the history of each case was read out and reviewed by the men, the patrolman or detective in charge of the prisoner of the day, and the room and to court, to be arraigned. This avoided confusion, and an hour and a quarter after the first of the daily lineups had commenced the last prisoner was led from the room.

Thomas Smith, a negro, of 215 West Sixty-third street, seemed to be amused at the gathering of detectives. When the men filed into the room he threw up his hands and said: "Great guns! I never knew that"

Fatality of Whooping Cough

Many parents think lightly of whooping cough, and treat it as a necessary evil, not giving the child who has it any special attention. The seriousness of whooping cough was emphasized by the Medical Health Officer in Toronto a few months ago, when he reported fourteen deaths during the month from whooping cough, and only ten from scarlet fever, typhoid fever and measles combined.

So many people write to us about the relief and cure of whooping cough by the use of Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine that we can recommend it with the greatest confidence.

It loosens the cough, aids expectoration, and by its soothing influence prevents the terrible paroxysms of coughing which are so distressing to witness, and which wear away the strength of the child. By using this treatment the disease is held in check, and cured in a few weeks, instead of months. Look for the portrait and signature of A. W. Chase, M. D., on the bottle you buy. There are many imitations.

GIRL OF EIGHT ENDS 125,000 MILE TRIP AROUND THE WORLD

RUTH GLORIA NELSON

Miss Ruth Gloria Nelson deserves a medal for bravery and endurance. The little girl left New York with her mother, who is a vaudeville actress, when she was four years old. After a trip to San Francisco she was taken to the Hawaiian Islands, the Philippines, New Zealand, Australia and many cities in South Africa. During her trip she constantly carried a large teddy bear given to her when she was ten months old by Mrs. Fred Niblo, sister of George M. Cohan. The girl carried a little travelling case covered with labels of "hundreds" of hotels.

There were so many detectives in the world.

He was surprised to know that the force of 200 present represented but half of the actual number of detectives in the department.

It was a morning of general jubilation for the old-time detectives who had been used to the days of the line-up, and on all sides enthusiasm for restoration was heard. Deputy Commissioner Rubin, after the inspection, expressed himself as very well pleased with the lineup. He thought it was "a bully good thing."

MUCH FRUIT SENT FROM THIS PORT

S. L. Peters Issues Statement for Month of January—Big Opportunity in New Brunswick.

S. L. Peters, Dominion fruit inspector, has issued a statement showing that 6,505 barrels, and 909 boxes of apples were shipped from St. John during the month of January to Great Britain. Practically all these apples came from Ontario or Nova Scotia, but the fact only serves to illustrate the possibility of orcharding in New Brunswick.

The larger proportion of the shipments last month were held here in cold storage. A limited supply of New Brunswick apples are now in the hands of grocers, and supplies for the home market are being planned to come in from Ontario and Nova Scotia, which shows that there is still room for the expansion of the fruit growing industry.

Mr. Peters gives the following account of shipments of apples from St. John during the month of January:

Jan. 4—Manchester, Port Manchester, 479 barrels; Jan. 6, Shennadoh, London, 152 barrels; Jan. 10, Lakonia, Glasgow, 2,102 barrels; Jan. 14, Royal George, Avonmouth, 1,810 barrels, 309 boxes; Jan. 14, Lake Michigan, London, 122 barrels; Jan. 15, Manchester, 100 barrels; Jan. 15, Rappahannock, London, 164 barrels; Jan. 22, Hesperian, Liverpool, 1,128 barrels; Jan. 23, Montreal, 396 barrels; Jan. 28, Royal Edward, Avonmouth, 396 barrels, 600 boxes. Total shipments for month—Barrels, 6,505; boxes 909.

Thought Nothing But Death Would End Her Misery.

WAS TROUBLED WITH Heart Disease.

Mrs. J. D. Talbot, Owen Sound, Ont., writes:—"I have been a great sufferer from heart disease, and leaking valves. I have had recourse to every kind of treatment I could think might help me, including the skill of several doctors. I suffered so for years that at times I have felt that nothing but death could end my misery. I was advised by a friend, who had suffered untold pain and misery, just as I had, and had been cured by Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills, to give them a trial, so I decided to do so. I am now completely cured, and can eat and sleep as I have not done for years."

Highway Board Wants $500 for Privilege, and Company Offers $200—No Definite Action Taken by Lancaster Board of Trade—Three Cent Fare Question.

The matter of the extension of the street railway to Manchester's Corner has been taken up by the Lancaster Board of Trade, but so far nothing definite has been done. W. J. Linton, who has been active in the affairs of the board, said last night that a delegation had interviewed the street railway people and would hold a conference with the Highway Board of Lancaster in a short time.

"The street railway people say the Highway Board is holding up the extension," said Mr. Linton. "I don't know yet what the Highway Board has to say, but I presume they have good reason for any stand they may have taken. We will find out in a day or two, and then we will see what the extension is made the better if it is to be a mile long."

Mr. Hopper, secretary of the Street Railway Company, said he had written to the Highway Board on March 27th of last year, offering to extend the line, but at that time the company wanted the Highway Board to pay the privilege of making the extension. The company came up to $200, and there the matter stands.

"This proposition was impossible," said Mr. Hopper. "We will have to pay the Provincial Government $5,000 a year for the privilege of running our tracks across the new bridge at the Reversing Falls. That means another charge of $3,000 a year and the carrying of 75,000 passengers to meet it. That is, we will have to carry 200,000 passengers at 4 cents before the company is able to earn a cent."

Councillor J. E. Bryant said the Highway Board had had several interviews with street railway management but that he had heard nothing of the demand for 3 cent fares.

"At our last conference," he said, "we asked the company to pay $500 for the privilege of making the extension. The company came up to $200, and there the matter stands."

WHOLE ARMY OF 'LONGSHOREMEN IN NEW YORK GOING ON STRIKE

Ordered Out by International Union—Quit Work Monday—Refusal of Coal Company to Meet Demands Cause of Trouble.

New York, Feb. 12.—A strike of 28,000 'longshoremen, to begin Monday, was ordered last night by the greater New York Council of the International 'Longshoremen's Union after a meeting between officers of that organization and representatives of the State Board of Mediation and Arbitration in Hoboken.

The trouble arises over the refusal of the Berwind-White Coal Company, which supplies practically all of the trans-Atlantic steamship companies, to pay the 'longshoremen more than $50 a month.

The 'longshoremen assert that they have agreements with 178 other companies to pay $60 a month.

The coal company, which employs about 5,000 'longshoremen, refused to treat personally with union officers. The union is hopeful that the company will give in before Monday.

PROGRESS REPORTED AT MONTHLY MEETING

Directors of Y.M.C.A. in Session Last Evening—Much Interest in all Departments.

The monthly meeting of the directors of the Y. M. C. A. was held last evening with J. Hunter White presiding. Others present at the meeting were Charles Robinson, J. A. Henderson, F. A. Dykeman, F. Neill Brodie, A. M. Gray, J. A. Barbour, D. D. Milligan and S. O. Watt.

The business discussed was largely of a routine nature. The principal part of the session was taken up with the receiving of reports. These showed that the association was in a flourishing condition with a strong membership and that a keen interest was being taken in the different departments.

The report submitted by D. D. Milligan, boys' secretary, was very encouraging, showing much activity in that department. The report showed a membership of 240 boys, considerably in advance of the number during the corresponding month last year. The Bible study classes were well attended, 246 boys in all having been present.

The report of Physical Instructor C. D. Howard showed encouraging results. It was shown that the attendance at the gymnasium classes was very large with a total of 296 more than on last year. Four basketball leagues from among the "gym" members were in full swing. During the past month a very active interest was taken in the work of the physical department. Wrestling which was introduced this year, has taken a firm grip on the members under Dan McDonald.

W. L. Harvey, the expert swimmer, has also given much assistance by giving demonstrations and he now has under training a special class, which is being taught the different strokes and fine points in swimming.

S. O. Watt, general secretary, reported that the Bible classes were largely attended and that the members appeared much interested in every line of the work.

All the reports showed increased interest taken in the association and its aims, and the directors were well satisfied with the progress made.

NOT SO COLD LAST NIGHT

Early this morning thermometers about the city registered seven and eight degrees below zero. It is probable that, at any time today the temperature will fall as low as yesterday morning, when it fell in some places to 28 degrees below zero, the highest temperature of the day. At that time the wind was blowing from the northwest at the rate of thirty miles an hour.

The coldest spots about the city yesterday were on the Manawash Road, at Marsh Bridge, in the vicinity of the sugar refinery and on the West Side.

Several of the farmers living on the Marsh Road reported that their horses, stalled in stables not prepared for cold weather, were nearly frozen to death. The attendance at the public schools in the morning was very small in several cases three to six pupils representing the whole class. It was deemed necessary in the afternoon to grant one session, even to the pupils of the higher grades.

The cold spell is being felt keenly by merchants about the city yesterday, business was at a standstill as only those who could not prevent it ventured out at all. The playhouses, likewise, lost trade, and the weather man alone is credited with this loss of business.

Early this morning the indication was that no records would be established today, and yesterday will probably go down in history as one of the coldest days in years.

CATHOLICS PUT BAN ON MAETERLINCK

Many St. John people are interested in the announcement that the works of Maurice Maeterlinck, the famous Belgian dramatist and philosopher, have been placed in the list of forbidden literature by the Sacred Congregation of the Index at Rome. It is not known what in his writings has offended the Sacred Congregation, but it is surmised that his latest book "La Mort" is responsible for his works being placed under the ban.

Maeterlinck regards total annihilation as impossible, but his views of life beyond the grave are decidedly unorthodox, and he has stated that suicide under certain circumstances is not a crime. While his dramatic works have earned him the title of the Belgian Shakespeare, he is probably better known for his philosophical views. He is a believer in immortality, but does not think that personality or individuality persists, since he regards these as conditions by the senses. In fact he thinks it would be a calamity if men carried their individuality into a future existence, as in such case they would soon be wearied of the burden of existence. He prefers to believe that the future life will be a sort of sub-conscious or unconscious existence, such as sleep.

Maeterlinck's philosophy is not new. He only dresses in modern language a concept of a school of ancient Greek philosophy. Also, while he, to a certain extent, proceeds from the data of spiritualism, he arrives by different methods at practically the same conclusion as the socialist philosophers of whom Joseph Dietrich is the most distinguished example, namely, the doctrine of materialist monism, that is at a uniform conception of the universe as a natural organism, in which men and matter play specified parts, but of which men may hope to control the process of evolution.
