Kingston Sabbath reformation Society, and the Young Men's Christian Association of Montreal, C. E. and London, C. W .; and aversion to hanging a woman, but thinks that we expressed surprise that Christian congregations throughout the country were doing so little towards procuring an Act of Parliament, entirely with Sabbath labor on the other govert ment offices. We sre uprised at the apparent apathy and adifference manifested by Christian congregations from the fact, that we consider the command to keep Holy the Sabbath day, a rational point of view. Philosophy and experiment both prove the necessi'y of resting one day in seven. It appears to be a necessity of our being, and not only a promotive of religious feeling but of longivity and pecuniary interest. Oneseventh of our time devoted to rest, enables to recover its tone, and to endure the fatigue of the next six days with more comhile the mind feels invigorated and s more clearly the interests of business relations; plans more promptly; and investigates more theroughly. FRESH ARRIVALS OF Spring and Summer Goods FOR 1859.

with to -THE Subscriber begs respectfully to an-nounce to the Inhabitants of Pakenham and surrounding country that he has just returned from the Markets with his usual

DRY GOODS, GROCERIES, Hardware, Drugs, &c.

The DRY GOODS in particular, con ag a large and varied assortment of Fancy Muslin and Sa. ege, Dresses, Prints Shawls, Bonnets and Hats, Ribbons, Flowers &c., were purchased before the late advance. to the Tariff of Duties, and will consequently be found MUCH CHEAPER than any that can now be brought in.

He would also take this opportunity of sin cerely thanking his friends for the liberal patronage with which they have favoured hu for these last few years; and at the sam time inform them that for the future he intends conducting his business on an entirely different runciple from formerly. All goods will now e marked at the LOWEST CASH PRICE, and credit Customers will therefore buy their good at Cash Prices, but will also have to pay nterest of one per cent. per month upon their best mode that could be adoped, as it obviates the necessity of baving Two PRICES, and consequently avoids all difficulty which may aruse f om one Customer being charged more than another, for both Cash and Credit Cusinterest for his accommodation. In accordance with this determination
