

Her first voyage was to Canton in 1839, made in 109 days. By being out during the China War she made a very handsome profit for her owners. So successful was the experiment that the Akbar was quickly followed by a series of other vessels built along clipper ship lines, that ultimate perfection of shipbuilding.