

“What the Monkey Sees the Monkey Does.”

Rival paper makers, not able to compete with us on quality even after reckless and senseless cutting of prices, are imitating as closely as possible the very shades and colors of our various paper products.

Recently they have gone further and now imitate the very wrappers, twines and styles in which our papers are put up. Imitation is the sincerest flattery, but it often implies fraud.

When you buy paper, see that E. B. Eddy's is supplied you and you will have no complaint to make about the quality.
