MACLEOD, Mrs. Elizabeth S., author, is the only dau. of the late Martin Macqueen, of Skye, by his wife, Sophie Treherne, and is a native of Edinburgh. While at sch., her holidays being spent with the relatives of her father and mother, she had not only the opportunity of moving in the best social circle, but of observing and enquiring into the condition of the Highland peasantry. The knowledge thus gained has enabled Mrs. MacL. to plead forcibly both in poetry and prose, the cause of the oppressed, and to urge the only effectual remedy, emigration to the freer and broader land of her adoption. Though Mrs. MacL. has been a frequent contributor to Scottish, Am. and Can. publications during the past 20 yrs., her first book, "Carols of Canada," has but recently appeared. It has met with a favourable reception, and the talented author is now engaged on a Scottish-Can. story, written for the purpose of inducing emigration. Mrs. MacL. first visited Can. in
