

17. The Specification and Description shall consist of—First, a short Specification, description of the Invention; second, the Specification; third, the Mode or Modes of operation; fourth, the Claim.

18. The Drawings shall fully exhibit all parts of the invention and Drawings. 5 shall consist of four figures, viz.:—No. 1, Elevation; No. 2, Plan; No. 3, Longitudinal Section; No. 4, Transverse Section; each drawing shall bear the name of the invention of which it is illustrative, with written references to correspond with the specification, and a certificate that it is the drawing referred to in the accompanying specification and description; Provided, however, that the Commissioner shall have power 10 to require any greater number of drawings, or to dispense with any of those herein prescribed, if he sees fit so to do. Proviso.

19. The drawings and specifications shall be in duplicate; the solemn Duplicate declaration, drawings and specifications shall be signed by the Inventor drawings, &c. 15 in the presence of a Justice of the Peace, or Commissioner for taking affidavits; each Inventor shall, moreover, deliver to the Commissioner of Patents a neat working model of his invention, of a convenient size, Models. to exhibit advantageously its several parts, provided such invention admits of a model: Provided, however, that where the nature of the 20 invention or discovery will not admit of drawings and models, the Commissioner shall be furnished with specimens of the ingredients, or of the composition of matter, sufficient in quantity for the purpose of experiment. Proviso.

20. At the time of making every such application for a Patent, the 25 applicant therefor shall pay to the Commissioner the fee or fees hereinafter provided, on receipt of which the Commissioner shall make or cause to be made, an examination of the alleged new invention or discovery; and if on such examination, it shall appear to the Commissioner that the facts contained in the applicant's declaration are correct, he 30 shall report the same to the Board, who shall, if satisfied of the correctness thereof, order the issuing of Letters Patent to the applicant for his Invention. Fees to be paid on application for Patent.

21. If, however, it shall appear to the Commissioner, that the facts 35 are not wholly in accordance with the applicant's declaration, or that the description is defective or insufficient, he shall notify the applicant thereof, giving him briefly such information and references as may be useful in judging of the propriety of renewing or withdrawing his application, or of altering his specification to embrace only that part of the invention or discovery which is new. Provided, however, that 40 should the applicant in such case persist in his claim for a Patent, with or without any alteration of his specification, he may on appeal, and upon request in writing, have the decision of the Board thereon, who shall have the right to call in the aid of such skilled persons or experts, as they may think fit, or such Board may, unless otherwise desired by 45 such applicant, before proceeding to adjudicate upon such appeal to grant or refuse a Patent, refer the said application, reasons of refusal and reasons of appeal to experts to be named for that purpose by the Board of Arts and Manufactures nearest the residence of the applicant, if he reside in Canada, or by either of such Boards of Arts and Manu- 50 factures, if the applicant be a non-resident in the Province, each of which experts shall receive five dollars a day for such reasonable time as they may be occupied in such examination, and they shall, without delay, report thereon to the Patent Board; and if upon examination, such re- If the Commissioner is not satisfied as to applicant's right to a Patent. Proviso: for appeal to the Board and reference to experts.