

FOR INFANTS, INVALIDS and the AGED.

BENGER'S FOOD
assists nature.

It is used mixed with fresh new milk and forms a delicate and nutritive cream which is enjoyed and assimilated when other foods disagree. It is entirely free from rough and indigestible particles which produce irritation in delicate stomachs.

"The Lancet" describes it as "Mr. Benger's admirable preparation." Mothers and interested persons are requested to write for Booklet "Benger's Food and How to Use it." This contains a "Concise Guide to the Rearing of Infants," and practical information on the care of Invalids, Convalescents, and the Aged. Post free on application to Benger's Food Ltd., Otter Works, Manchester, Eng.

Benger's Food is sold in tins by Druggists, etc., everywhere. 221

OXO Cubes are the greatest advance in food invention since men began to eat and women learnt to cook.

Each cube is measured exactly—the right size for a cupful—uniform in nutritious properties, in quality, taste and flavor.

To make a meal, simply drop an OXO Cube in a cup, pour on hot water and stir.

THE WESTERN HOME MONTHLY

Vol. XII. Published Monthly No. 11
By the Home Publishing Co., McDermot and Arthur Sts., Winnipeg, Canada.

THE SUBSCRIPTION PRICE of the Western Home Monthly is $1 per annum to any address in Canada, or British Isles. The subscription price to foreign countries is $1.50 a year, and within the City of Winnipeg limits and in the United States $1.25 a year.

REMITTANCES of small sums may be made with safety in ordinary letters. Sums of one dollar or more it would be well to send by registered letter or Money Order.

POSTAGE STAMPS will be received the same as cash for the fractional parts of a dollar, and in any amount when it is impossible for patrons to procure bills. We prefer those of the one cent or two cent denomination.

WE ALWAYS STOP THE PAPER at the expiration of the time paid for unless a renewal of subscription is received. Those whose subscriptions have expired must not expect to continue to receive the paper unless they send the money to pay for it another year.

CHANGE OF ADDRESS.—Subscribers wishing their addresses changed must state their former as well as new address. All communications relative to change of address must be received by us not later than the 20th of the preceding month.

WHEN YOU RENEW be sure to sign your name exactly the same as it appears on the label of your paper. If this is not done it leads to confusion. If you have recently changed your address and the paper has been forwarded to you, be sure to let us know the address on your label.

A Chat with our Readers.

Winter, the best time for getting subscriptions, is here, and The Western Home Monthly is bigger, better and more beautiful than ever. With such a combination to aid them, our loyal club raisers should do wonders in canvassing for their favorite magazine. Now is their harvest time. Winter evenings have come when good literature is in demand for lamp light reading. Winter days are here when the warm bright kitchen invites the housekeeper to try new dishes for the delight of the family. School days are here when the mother has all kinds of problems to solve. The Western Home Monthly can fill all three demands, hence, is bound to be more popular than ever. A large number of people throughout Canada read it and prize it. We want the rest of them to become acquainted with it, and we depend on our friends the club raisers to make the introduction, not only because they like The Western Home Monthly for itself and are glad to win new friends for it, but because they will secure for themselves a handsome premium and a cash commission also. Securing subscriptions for this magazine is easy, pleasant and dignified work, because the sample copies do the selling. Let a person look through its pages and hardly a word need be said. He or she will recognize that here is a chance to secure a valuable assistant at a price which is certainly a bargain. The Western Home Monthly contains features of interest to every member of the household. Our "Woman's Quiet Hour" has brought and will bring help in a hundred ways to busy women who manage their own housekeeping. Our editorial comment has a cheerful note that comforts while it instructs. In every way this magazine caters to the domestic, home loving man and woman, and such people want it as soon as they realize its mission. When they understand that every new subscriber whose name is enrolled on our list before November 20th receives November and December numbers free, thus getting 14 numbers of the magazine for $1.00, they will know that it is the magazine bargain of the year that is being offered to them.

The present price of The Western Home Monthly is $1.00 a year for single subscriptions, $2.00 for three yearly subscriptions and $2.50 for four yearly subscriptions. In each case the club raiser gets a premium, and as it is usual to collect the full subscription price ($1) from each of these joining, the club raiser is entitled to retain a very substantial cash commission also. You must realize that The Western Home Monthly at $1.00 a year is the best value of any magazine published. Lend your latest number to your neighbor and they will gladly join your club without your asking. If you cannot spare your own number because every member of your family wants it, send to us for free sample copies, leaving them at the houses where this magazine is not a regular visitor, then a few days later gather up your subscriptions. There will be one for every copy. Don't be afraid to send for sample copies because your request binds you to secure subscriptions for our magazine. We know you must be a friend to The Western Home Monthly, otherwise you would not be reading this number, therefore, it will afford us great pleasure to forward you a bundle of samples whether you succeed in getting subscriptions for us or not. If there is anything that you do not understand about club raising be sure and let us know. Taking subscriptions for The Western Home Monthly is easy and pleasant work, which will be sure to bring in substantial reward. Anyone, even a child, can be successful at it, with a high grade magazine like ours. Begin the work early before someone else has canvassed your neighborhood, and earn in spare moments a valuable premium and a nice little cash commission.

Congratulatory letters continue to come by every mail. Here are a few extracts that have come to hand within the course of the last few days.

Dear Sir,—We look forward to receiving your valuable paper each month with great interest, and we think it the best all round magazine in Canada. The articles with reference to "The Young Men and Women" are especially good, although as a matter of fact, it is full of good reading for all.

Wishing your paper every success, I am, yours truly,
Gertrude Knappett,
Victoria, B.C.

Dear Sir,—Enclosed find $1.00, for which kindly send me the Western Home Monthly for one year. I find your magazine excellent reading, and I think no one has anything to fear in sending in a year's subscription, or even two years' subscription, to the Western Home Monthly. I wish you all progress and success, yours truly,

Peter Dunlop,
Foam Lake, Sask.

Dear Sir,—We find the Western Home Monthly the best paper of its kind. It is the best paper we have ever had in our home. I don't think it can be beat in Canada for a good bargain. Yours truly,

Ernest Corner,
Adanac, Sask.

Dear Sir,—We are taking a number of papers, but I could not think of dropping your Western Home Monthly. We very much like to advertise this magazine, as we think it contains very worthy literature, which is wholesome and instructive for both grown ups and children. I am sending in subscription for myself and friend. Yours truly,

Mrs. C. A. Biden,
Wolseley, Sask.

Dear Sir.—The enclosed amount is a renewal of my subscription to the Western Home Monthly for one year. We all enjoy reading this magazine. It is a splendid paper, and well worth the subscription price. Yours truly,

Miss Bone,
Winnipeg, Man.

Dear Sir,—I am enclosing the sum of $1.00, for which kindly send me your magazine for one year. I may say that I am proud of the Western Home Monthly, having read it since the first issue, and there are few publications in Canada or the United States that will bear comparison with it in many respects. Yours truly,

D. S. McLeod,
Goodlands, Man.
