

WOODLAND DUO FLYING, BUT...

Raider athlete runs into one of 'those' Moodie days at finals

BY JOHN STEWART
Track officials made Chris Moodie's moment of glory in the winner's circle a short one at the Peel track and field meet but they could hardly mistake the splendour of performances by Woodland's Ray Costello and Ann Bryan.

Moodie, from Erindale, had a disappointing day all around. In the junior 100, he though the race was a false start and pulled up, though he still managed to finish third at the end.

In the 200 metres he was nipped at the wire by Lorne Park's Mike Lavery. Terry Lavery was third.

Moodie did manage to finish first in the 400 (which he considers his worst event) but then when Erindale's relay team ran, Moodie had to sit on the sidelines with a muscle spasm in his chest. When an Erindale runner bumped a Kennedy sprinter, the Raiders were eliminated from any chance to advance to Peel-Halton.

To top everything off, officials named Moodie as winner of the junior boys individual award. Chris got down to the awards circle just in time to find out there was a mistake and he was second to Central Peel's Dave Bronson.

Officials didn't have any trouble tabulating Bryan and Costello as winners. They were clearly superior in their fields. Ann won the junior 100, 200 and long jump while Costello smashed the midget 3000 metre and 1500 metre records and finished second in the 800.

The Mississauga Track and Field club runner didn't have enough time between events to stay fresh in the 800. Costello's two long distance runs produced better times, 9:17.3 in the 3000 and 4:17 in the 1500 than runners in the junior or senior ranks could come up with.

Nevertheless, Port Credit's Paul Barron set junior records in both long distance events.

Erindale's Dwight Edwards won the 100 in 10.9 and set a county record in the long jump.

Although they had to wait for the point tabulators to correct their public announcements to find it out, Brampton Centennial were the Peel champs. Erindale was second and Port Credit, who had won for the last three consecutive years, were third. Lorne Park was fourth.

Port Credit won the senior girls and junior boys titles handily while Erindale dominated the senior boys and Brampton took the midget boy's crown.

Dixie up and down against Port Credit, Clarkson foes

Magnificent midgets Dave Chapman and Gord Swatton accounted for two-thirds of Port Credit's scoring power in a comfortable 8-0 Mississauga Lacrosse League exhibition victory over Dixie-1.

Chapman and Swatton each scored hat tricks, while the Briscoe brothers, Chris and Don, took care of the rest of the scoring chores.

Things looked much brighter for the Dixie crew in their second start of the week at Clarkson Arena, where a balanced scoring attack provided enough power for a 10-3 triumph over the host Clarkson-1 side. Rich Richards hit for a hat trick, Dan Ross added a pair and singles came from Wayne Speakman, John Britton, Frank Hay, Nick McEwan and Tom Andre.

Grant Hardy with a pair and John Campbell led Clarkson's scoring attack.

A rough game at Huron Park Arena saw Malton lose a 6-4 decision to Erindale. Shaw (3), Clarke (2) and Campbell got Erindale's markers with Forbes (2), Beck and Fraser hitting back for Malton.

BANTAM A
Malton got off to a flying start with back-to-back wins over Port Credit and Clarkson in bantam A exhibitions.

Keith Beedham, Dave Clancy, Tony Camardo and Steve Shaw all got hat tricks with Bill Dixon, Steve Showbridge and Mike McCarthy adding singletons as the powerful Malton side outclassed Port Credit 15-0.

Camardo scored his second hat trick in as many starts to spark Malton to an 8-5 win over Clarkson. Steve Cooper and Steve Shaw each had two and Brian Cheany came through with one.

For Clarkson, it was Mike Walker (2), Rick Smith, Blair Martin and Kelly Hurst.

Erindale defeated Streetsville 7-1 with Ruston Majjana (2); Art Duncan, Darren Bulock, Dave Williams, Dave Boyd and Phil Jenkins providing the goal power. Mike Prestidge put the losers on the board.

BANTAM B
Dixie and Erindale emerged victorious from a pair of bantam B encounters.

Two goals by Alan Ridington and a single by Gord Moorehead enabled Dixie to edge Malton 3-2. D. Irvine and P. Parmenter kept Malton in the game until the final buzzer.
