

Hon. R. B. Hanson, Esq., K.C. M.P.

It is a strange thing to me that this young lady will not be allowed to proceed to England to give her services where they are apparently wanted and will be accepted. I cannot understand it. If she was going over there on a site-seeing tour, or for any other purpose other than that for which she is going, I could understand the attitude of the Department. This young lady has gone to a lot of expense preparing to go and has given up her position because she naturally assumed when she got the passport as recently as she did that there would be no further obstacles in her way.

I think that if you took the matter up with the Minister of External Affairs that the permit would be issued, and as a favour to myself I am asking you if you would be good enough to do that.

With kindest personal regards, I remain,

Yours sincerely,

W. W. Lynd.

WWL:P
Encls.