

LESSON 4.

Copy extract (a). Write (b) correctly by putting capital letters and punctuation-marks where they ought to be.

(a) At Waterloo, a Highland soldier, seeing the colour-sergeant of his regiment fall with his flag, rushed forward in the face of a cavalry charge to save his colours. The flag was so fast in the grip of the dead sergeant, that it could not at once be disengaged. The Highlander therefore lifted both man and flag on his back, and carried them off. The leader of the French cavalry was so struck with the bravery of the deed, that he halted his troops and shouted, "Bravo, Highlander!"

(b) in the american civil war a party of northern soldiers came face to face with a troop of southerners in front of a farmhouse when the order to attack was about to be given a little girl seeing her pet kitten in danger rushed from the farmhouse to a tree in the line of fire and called out kitty kitty come down the soldiers paused then they laughed and then they cheered and from both sides several men ran forward to help the girl and to warn her of her danger after that fighting was out of the question north-erners and southerners were soon exchanging compliments and sharing their rations in the most friendly way.

LESSON 5.

Copy the following fable, correcting the mistakes in the latter part. Use the first part as a model.

THE ARAB AND HIS CAMEL.

One cold night, as an Arab sat in his tent, a camel gently thrust aside the flap of the door and looked in.

"I pray thee, master," he said, "let me but put my head within the tent, for it is cold without."
