

Morgan, E. R., founder of Wells College, 250
 Morrill, J. S., 225
 Morrill Act, 164, 220, 221 et seq.
 Morse, Jedediah, 119
 Motley, J. L., student in Germany, 174
 Mount Holyoke College, "Mount Holyoke Female Seminary," 243-45; chartered as college (1888), 245
 Mount St. Mary's, Emmitsburg (Md.), 191-92
 Music, Horace Mann introduces into public schools, 129-30

N

Napoleon and University of France, 170
 National Association of State Universities endorses national university, 102
 National Educational Association endorses national university, 102
 National University, Washington and, 95 et seq.; Hoyt urges, 177 (note)
 Nazareth (Penn.), Moravian school for girls, 236
 Neale, Father, President of Georgetown College, 194
 Negroes admitted to Oberlin, 247
 Nemours, Dupont de, Jefferson and, 170
 Nerinckx, Father, in Kentucky, 195, 196
 New Amstel (New Castle, Del.). Dutch teacher at, 25
 New Amsterdam, public school, 24; Latin school started (1652), 25
 "New education, the," 253 et seq.

New England, schools of early, 1 et seq.; Church of England schools in, 30; colleges established, 208; state of colleges (1850), 214; fraternities in colleges of, 278
New England Primer, 14-15
New England's First Fruits, quoted, 46
 New Hampshire follows school system of Massachusetts, 8
 New Harmony (Ind.), communistic colony, 218
 New Haven, school laws, 8; Yale College moved to, 54
 New Jersey, College of (Princeton), 56, 60-61; see also Princeton University
 New Jersey, schools, 39-40
 New Mexico, Catholic, 182; Franciscan missions, 183
 New Netherland, schools in, 22 et seq.
 New Orleans, elementary education begun (1722), 188; girls' schools, 236
 New Sweden, schools, 38-39
 New York, English educational work in, 28 et seq.; Society for the Propagation of the Gospel in, 30-31; tries to make schools democratic, 141; public school system established, 144; bill for education of women, 240; coeducational universities, 251; fraternities in colleges, 278; see also New Netherland
 New York City, law to provide public support of teacher in (1702), 28-39; Trinity Church Charity school, 31; high schools, 115; Public School Society, 144-47, 197; debt to DeWitt Clinton, 145; Jesuit school (1684), 190; Catholic schools, 197; "no Popery" agitation in,