

Matriculation.

Candidates for matriculation will be required to pass a satisfactory examination on the following subjects :

Arithmetic, English Grammar, Geography, Collier's English History; Roman, and Grecian History, as contained in Smith's smaller editions; Algebra, through simple equations; the first four books of Davies' Legendre*; Latin and Greek Grammars; two books of Cæsar; one book of Virgil's Æneid; two Orations of Cicero; two books of Xenophon's Anabasis; and the first book of Homer.

These examinations are held twice in each College year—near the close of the last term, and shortly before the opening of the first term—at either of which times Candidates may present themselves.

No Candidate will be admitted unless he has completed his fifteenth year.

Candidates may enter advanced Classes after undergoing satisfactory examination in the previous studies of the Course.

* The first, second, third, and fifth Books of Euclid will be accepted as an equivalent.
