

Now Speed the Twilight Hours Fleet.

Now speed the twilight hours fleet,
The night looms vast and still,
Anon in cadence mournfully sweet,
Sounds forth the whip-poor-will.

O take me in thine ebon flow,
Sleep in my day-worn soul,
O lull me gently, soft, and low
Where thine unseen billows roll.

Till, lost within their silent sweep,
Wanders my spirit o'er,
Far adrift on the starry deep,
Sailing for slumber shore.
