

Issued Each Week—Only One Dollar a Year

VOL. XXVII

NUMBER 40

The CANADIAN By Riddick, J. A. (Ed.)
Dept. of Agriculture DAIRYMAN
AND FARMING WORLD

PETERBORO, ONT. OCTOBER 21, 1908

AN EXTENSIVE MARKET GARDEN IN BRITISH COLUMBIA

This field is located near Armstrong, in the Okanagan Valley. It produced 20 tons of marketable cabbage per acre, and 14 tons 140 pounds of marketable potatoes per acre. No fertilizers were used. This shows the remarkable fertility of land in the valleys of the Pacific Province.

DEVOTED TO BETTER FARMING AND CANADIAN COUNTRY LIFE