

VOLUME I.—TENTH EDITION, 2s.

CHARLES DARWIN'S JOURNAL

DURING THE VOYAGE OF H.M.S. "BEAGLE" ROUND THE WORLD.

(Also known as "A Naturalist's Voyage Round the World.")

With a Biographical Introduction by the Editor, Portrait of Darwin, and Illustrations.

"The Minerva Library,' the new venture of Messrs. Ward and Lock, has made an excellent start. . . . No better volumes could be chosen for popular reading of a healthy sort than 'Darwin's Journal of Researches during the Voyage of the Beagle,' and 'Borrow's Bible in Spain.' The paper is good, the type is tolerable, the binding is in excellent taste, and the price is extremely low." Athenaeum.

VOLUME II.—FOURTH EDITION, 2s.

THE INGOLDSBY LEGENDS;

OR, MIRTH AND MARVELS.

By REV. RICHARD HARRIS BARHAM.

With a Critical Introduction by the Editor, Portrait of the Author, and reproductions of the celebrated Illustrations by Phiz and Cruikshank.

"The determination of the publishers of the 'Minerva Library' to render the series attractive and representative of English literature of all kinds, is strikingly displayed in this volume. . . . The book is well printed and bound, and will be eagerly welcomed by all desiring to obtain at a small cost a good edition of the works of the famous humorist."—Liverpool Courier.

VOLUME III.—THIRD EDITION, 2s.

BORROW'S BIBLE IN SPAIN:

The Journeys, Adventures, and Imprisonments of an Englishman, in an attempt to circulate the Scriptures in the Peninsula.

By GEORGE BORROW, Author of "The Gipsies in Spain."

With a Biographical Introduction by the Editor, and Illustrations.

A leading literary critic writes as follows to the Editor: "As a friend and admirer of George Borrow, I cannot resist the impulse to write and thank you for the good service you are doing his memory, and the good service you are doing the public, by the issue of your admirable edition of 'The Bible in Spain.' This is a period of marvellously cheap reprints, but surely the 'Minerva Library' leaves them all behind."

VOLUME IV.—FIFTH EDITION, 2s.

EMERSON'S PROSE WORKS:

THE COMPLETE PROSE WORKS OF RALPH WALDO EMERSON.

With a Critical Introduction by the Editor, and Portrait of the Author.

"Extends to 650 pages of matter in double columns and quite readable type, prefaced by a very appreciative and ably written introduction by Mr. Bettany. He claims for Emerson that he 'foresaw the reading of the history of nature and its effects on man which Darwin later unfolded,' and quotes the opinion given of him by Carlyle as 'the most shining intellectual glory, and the most potent intellectual force' of the New World."—The Christian World.

VOLUME V.—FOURTH EDITION, 2s.

GALTON'S SOUTH AFRICA:

The Narrative of an Explorer in Tropical South Africa: being an Account of a visit to Damaraland in 1851.

By FRANCIS GALTON, F.R.S.

With a New Map and Appendix, together with a Biographical Introduction by the Editor, Portrait of Mr. Galton, and Illustrations.

CONTAINING ALSO VACATION TOURS IN 1860 AND 1861. BY SIR GEORGE GROVE, FRANCIS GALTON, F.R.S., AND W. G. CLARK, M.A.

"The work is one that deserves for many years to come to hold its own as a volume describing in language vivid, yet altogether free from hyperbole, the experiences of one of the most intrepid of living explorers."—Scottish Leader.
