Thirty-one Show a Profit, and Thirty-nine a Loss on Underwriting Account.—Aggregate Gains
Amounted to $45,446,562:

Stafistics of the underwriting profits and losses of seventy fire insurance companies. Canada and the United States, with assets of at least $1,000,000, and which have been in business for at least ten years, shows that the loss ratio was 57.16 per cent., the spense ratio 36.91, and the increase in liabilities 5.73. This leaves an underwriting profit for the de-cade of $3.055.021, or .14 per cent.

Only the larger and more successful companies are included in the estimate and if the figures of the hundreds of smaller companies which have retired from the field were included a considerable net loss on ings Nos. 251 to 269, St. Urbain street, for $22,000. general underwriting would be shown for the period The figures cover only the underwriting accounts and take no consideration of interest earnings.

INSURANCE ON CANADIAN

Toronto, March 4.-That there was $12,000,000 insurance on Canadian soldiers before the war began and that approximately $10.000,000 has been added to the insurance carried by these men was the statement of Mr. H. C. Cox, in an address before the Finance Forum at the Y. M. C. A. on Tuesday night.

Continuing, Mr. Cox said that only one-sixth of the about $200,000. insurable people in Canada were insured and that the average policy was $2,000.
