HAIR LIFE. NEW BEDFORD, Feb. 20th, 1866. MR. N. P. SELEE—

Dear Sir:—I have been now using your "Hair Life" a year. My hair had become quite white, giving me the appearance of a man of seventy, rather than fifty years old. I commenced the use under persuasion of friends, with no confidence in results. I am happy to give you this unasked testimonial of its value. In a very brief time my hair was restored to its natural color, and continues so with the occasional use of the contraction.

Yours, &c.,

PULMONIC SERUP

Qualities which are indispensable in a mediine designed for popular use are, certainity of salutary effect, and absence of danger from accidental overdoses.

These qualities are noteworthy in the Pulmonic Syrup.

Though this medicine has been before the public for many years, and though thousands in every section of the country place their depend-ence upon it in all disorders of the Throat and lungs, the first instance has yet to be recorded where it has failed to cure or afford relief. Purely vegetable in its composition, it is administered with safety to the most delicate in-

The complaints which have a common origin, and which the Pulmonic Syrup effectually and speedily cures, are Coughs, Colds, Croup, Whooping Cough, Asthma, Catarrh, Bronchitis, Influenza, Diptheria, Pieurisy, Spitting Blood, Psin in the Side, Night Sweats, Hoarseness Consumption in its early stages, and affections tending to consumption.

This medicine is offered to the sick with the utmost confidence that it will be found the surest, safest and speediest cure for all Pulmonic complaints, that has ever been placed within their reach.
