CARBIDE HAND LAMPS USED IN THE LARGEST MINES

Buyers who keep close tabs on carbide costs as well as repair and replacement expense specify these lamps.

They want long service with little repairs; besides they want light—lots of it. With a minimum of care and attention the I.T.P. gives them all of this.

Buyers tell us it would pay them to use I.T.P. even if they cost more on account of the lower operating and maintenance expense. But—

To Manufacturers

Valuable economic minerals, of which the people of this country as a rule have little knowledge, are distributed in various sections served by the Canadian National Railways. The field of utility for these minerals is constantly expanding and entering more and more into the realm of manufacture.
