By HOWARD L. RANN

A STRIKE is an expensive form of arbitration which leaves everybody satisfied but the ultimate consumer. It is called a strike because it raises large welts on the common people, who are obliged to pay not only the funeral expenses, but heavy dividends on the outraged feelings of the strike.

Strikes are usually called in order to persuade capital to quit stealing the bedding from labor. When a manufacturer is squeezing 10 per cent. dividends out of stock which is 60 per cent. water, on a pay roll averaging $7.00 a week, he is liable to come down to the plant some bright Monday morning and find everything closed tighter than a mule's saloon on election day. He then makes a 10 per cent. increase in wages and puts several healthy notches in the price to the consumer in order to assuage his mental anguish.

The coal industry generally manages to have one good adhesive strike every year which is usually pulled off just in advance of the time when the mine operators get together and erect a sliding scale of prices. A coal strike is always followed by several handspins in the price of that luxury which keep a man reaching for his check book with a grievous look. If there should be two coal strikes in one year, nine tenths of the people of this country would either have to burn their bedroom furniture or sleep in a haystack.

One of the most offensive forms of strikes is that which occurs in the kitchen. This is not caused by the wage question, but results from indignation on the part of the cook because she cannot have the front parlor four nights a week. Some cooks never strike until the invitations are out for a six-course dinner, and refuse to go on duty unless allowed the use of the piano in the reception hall. This attitude on the part of the hired help has caused a great many women to regret having exchanged $60 a month in the Eight grade for a glittering assortment of nuptial vows.

DON'T STAY GRAY! SAGE TEA WILL DARKEN YOUR HAIR BEAUTIFULLY

A Mixture of Sage and Sulphur Prevents Dandruff and Falling Hair.

When you darken your hair with Sage Tea and Sulphur no one can tell, because it's done so naturally; so evenly. It is also splendid to remove dandruff, cure itching scalp and stop falling hair.

Preparing this mixture, though, at home is a messy and troublesome task. For about 30 cents a bottle you can buy at any drug store the ready-to-use tonic called "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy." Some druggists put this mixture up themselves but make it too sticky, so insist you want "Wyeth's" then there will be no disappointment.

You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur" and draw it through the hair, taking one small strand at a time. Do this at night and by morning all gray hair disappears and after another application or two becomes beautifully darkened and more glossy and luxuriant than ever. You will also discover dandruff is gone and hair has stopped falling.

Gray, faded hair, though no disgrace, is a sign of old age and as we all desire a youthful and attractive appearance get busy at once with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur and you'll look years younger. Inquiry shows all pharmacists in town here sell lots of it.

WERE TRIED AND STOOD THE TEST

DODD'S KIDNEY PILLS MAKING A REPUTATION IN THE WEST.

Saskatchewan Man Tells How They Cured Him, After Four Months' Suffering from Backache and Other Forms of Kidney Disease.

ST. PHILLIPS, Sask., May 5.—(Special).—In a new country, where changes of climate and impure water are among the difficulties to be surmounted, kidney trouble is prevalent. It is the kidneys, the organs that strain the impurities out of the blood, that first felt and undue strain on the body. Consequently Dodd's Kidney Pills have been well tried and tested in their neighborhood.

They have stood the test. Many tell of backache, rheumatism and urinary troubles cured by Dodd's Kidney Pills. Mr. Otto Olshefski is one of these. In speaking of his cure he says:

"I suffered from kidney disease for four months. My back ached, I had heart fluttering, and was always tired and nervous. My skin had a harsh, dry feeling; my limbs were heavy; and I had a dragging sensation across the loins.

"I consulted a doctor, but, as I did not appear to improve, I decided to try Dodd's Kidney Pills. I used six boxes, and now I am all right."

Dodd's Kidney Pills always stand the test. Ask your neighbors.
