DR. M' MEANS IN THICK OF FIGHT

ful sight it was from our roof, for with darkness, the shooting stopped, and we could go up on the roof of the whole north skyline was one massive blaze. They burnt up fifteen million dollars worth of property, and as insurance companies are not responsible in time of war, this was a complete loss.

By night of the first day, we learned that unless reinforcements reached us by noon the next day, the city was doomed, so of course I went to sleep that night. The following morning, with daylight, the firing started again, and worse than ever, as the rebels were closing in fast on the center of the city. At noon I learned from an officer that I knew, who came to me, shot through the shoulder that they could not hold out more than a few hours and we prepared for the worst. At three-thirty we heard the sound of bugles coming down our street and the first contingent of the re-inforcements arrived from Sault Ste. Marie. They marched all the way poor fellows, but as we cheered them on, they cheered back, and ran forward into the fight. By five o'clock the rebels had started to retire and by six we knew we were saved for the present.

The following morning I got out early to see what had happened to the railroad hospital. I felt sure I would find a mass of smoking ruins. The sights that met my eyes I will never forget, if I live a thousand years. Dead bodies on every hand, dead horses almost making the streets impassible and dead men hanging from the light poles and trees in every direction, (inclose you a few snap-shots), fires still burning in every direction, till one would think the demons of hell had been turned loose, and all this because one man refuses to resign the presidency.

Had there been any means of leaving this blighted country, I would have picked up the family and quit, even if we had to beg our bread in the north, but every line was cut, and had been for weeks before, so we were caught like rats in a trap.

From day to day we were living in fear of a return of all this, as the rebels are all around us, but what is still worse for us, should the United States decide to come in, God only knows what would happen to all the foreigners, for the Mexican rebels and federalists are so bitter against the Americans that I fear a general massacre of all foreigners, would take place.

Naturally you say, why don't we get out and accept your invitation to go home. As you know, all my savings have been invested in mines and until the last year, I could have got out with considerable money. This for the present is all lost and as our expenses are heavy and business practically at a standstill, we have been running behind, the cost of living has increased tremendously, and the Mexican dollar has dropped in value until it is only worth 35 cents in gold. I could send Santa and the children, but she positively refuses to move a step unless I go with her, and that is entirely out of the question, for unless I stay here and see it out, we might be left absolute paupers.

Wedding Bells

PAYNE—SMITH
A very pretty wedding took place Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock in Trinity church, when Rev. G. W. Latimer united in marriage Miss Emma Amelia Smith, daughter of Mr. Wm. G. Smith, 106 Rawdon street, to Mr. Thoas P. Payne, of 20 Foster street, amid a large number of friends. The bride was dressed in white silk and carried a bouquet of roses and carnations. Miss Gerrie Ward acted as bridesmaid, while Mr. W. Smith, a brother of the bride supported the groom. The happy couple will reside at 20 Foster street.

Mr. H. MacDougall of Stratford, is stopping at the Kerby.

Y. W. C. A. Literary

There was a splendid attendance at the meeting of the Y. W. C. A. literary club held Saturday afternoon when Mrs. Raff of Toronto gave the second in her series of interpretations on the Ring and the Book, dealing with the character Guido. Mrs. Philip Buck, the president, presided. During the meeting solos were most acceptably rendered by Miss O'Grady and Miss Helen Fawkes. The club will not meet again until January 3, when the afternoon will be spent with the works of Charles G. D. Roberts and Thomas Chandler Haliburton. Mrs. Carl B. Smith will deal with the former and Mrs. Hollinrake with the latter works.

Obituary

The Late Mrs. Steele.
One of Brantford's oldest residents passed away yesterday in the person of Margaret Steele, widow of the late Joseph Steele, at her late residence 9 Maple Avenue. The deceased was in her 84th year and was a member of Brant Avenue Methodist Church. The funeral will take place on Wednesday at Fairfield Plans.

Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Chisholm of Dalhousie, N.B., are visiting Mrs. Chisholm's sisters, the Misses Taylor, Duke street, en route to Nelson, B.C.

SICK, SOUR STOMACH, INDIGESTION OR GAS

"Pape's Diapepsin" Makes Upset Stomachs Feel Fine in Five Minutes.

Wonder what upset your stomach; which portion of the food did the damage; do you? Well, don't bother. If your stomach is in revolt; if sour, gassy and upset, and what you just ate has fermented into stubborn lumps; head dizzy and aches; belch gassy and acids and cruetate undigested food; breath foul, tongue coated; just take a little Diapepsin and in five minutes you wonder what became of the indigestion and distress.

Millions of men and women to-day know that it is needless to have a bad stomach. A little Diapepsin occasionally keeps this delicate organ regulated and they eat their favorite foods without fear.

If your stomach doesn't take care of your liberal limit without rebellion; if your food is a damage instead of a help, remember the quickest, surest, most harmless relief is Pape's Diapepsin, which costs only fifty cents for a large case at drug stores. It's truly wonderful; it digests food and sets things straight, so gently and easily that it is really astonishing. Please for your sake, don't go on and on with a weak, disordered stomach; it's so unnecessary.
