The first awai fight has taken place of Manils, but at the present mass of off delight position. The seults accurately from the mass of off citing reports cone mostly from Spanish surces, and large allowaces. The substitute of the seults accurately selected the selected of the selected opanish fleet at the Philippines. On the whole it is apparent that the Spanish have been badly beaten, and their squadron there practically des-troped. If this correct, it goes far towards deciding the struggle in that quarter as those islands with their aval stores, etc., must inevitably fall of the hands of the Americans.
