MAY WALK OUT
(Courier Leased Wire)

MONTREAL, March 1.—One thousand operators, a large percentage of them women and girls, members of the Skirt and Cloak Makers Union of Montreal, will walk out in a body if the union on Tuesday next definitely decides to call a general strike.

Higher wages and better working conditions will be the incentive to the walkout if it takes place, as the operators claim that for the past three years wages have been steadily reduced, while the conditions under which they have to labor have not been improved.

TO A FINISH.

The Toronto Globe, in a leading editorial, makes the announcement:—

"Mr. Borden met Sir Wilfrid's challenge by the announcement that the Government confidently believed that in its policy it had the Canadian people behind it and would therefore press the proposals to a conclusion in Parliament. The issue is joined. The Borden Government will not consult the people unless it is forced to do so by the withholding of supply or the prolongation of debate on the naval bill with the object of preventing its passage. Sir Wilfrid's speech seems to indicate an intention to force the question to a decision at the polls. Canada may have a general election on the navy issue in May or June. In that election Liberalism will stand for Canadian control of Canada's defensive forces on land and sea."

In other words, the Liberal members, by refusing to vote supplies for the necessary public service, hope to force another election on the people. If so, that party will be licked, and soundly licked for three reasons:

1.—Because Laurierites still believe in Reciprocity.

2.—Because the great bulk of the Canadians are back of the Borden plan.

3.—Because it will be necessary to show men hungry to get back into office, that they cannot lightly enslave the people in the disturbance of a general contest.

FOR HYDRO ELECTRIC

The residents of West Middlesex have decided to petition for a supply of Hydro Electric power.

The proposal in this regard is to install a low tension wire carrying 13,200 volts to the municipalities in question with a 2,200 low tension wire to the farmers of the various districts.

The distributing point for the entire area would be the City of London. All necessary equipment would be installed there, and the service would extend to all parts of West Middlesex. The rate to the several municipalities will be submitted by the Hydro-Electric Commission at an early date in order that the necessary by-laws may be placed before the people as soon as possible. The total amount of power required on the start was estimated at 750 horsepower by the delegates in attendance. The rate is expected to average 35 horsepower on the start.

In connection with the hydro-radiation matter, the following resolution was unanimously adopted on motion of Dr. W. H. Woods, of Mount Bryton, and George A. Parrott, of Glenora:

"That we, the delegates assembled in conference at this hydro-electric convention at Mount Brydges, on February 28, learn with pleasure of the proposed policy of the Hydro-Electric Commission of Ontario in regard to hydro-electric radial railways. It is further moved that the secretary be instructed to forward a copy of this resolution to the Hydro-Electric Commission."

The farmers, as a whole, showed that they wanted hydro power at once, and were willing to do their part to secure the service.

Why shouldn't the residents of the County of Brant get busy in the same regard?

Hydro power would mean a lot to them and go a very long way towards solving the hired help problem.

BOSTON, March 1.—A party of non-union workers who have taken the places of the striking men garment workers were attacked by a crowd of several hundred persons as the new men arrived at the shop in taxicabs to-day. Several persons were injured and one of the number was carried away in an ambulance.

Police reserves clubbed their way through the crowd and rescuing the assaulted ones, gave them safe escort to their benches. They then turned their attention to the strike sympathizers, who were handled roughly before they gave way. Two of the crowd were arrested.

SET FOR HEARING
(Courier Leased Wire)

NEW YORK, March 1.—A cable room London to The Tribune says: Mrs. George Cornwallis-West has had her petition for restitution of conjugal rights against her young husband set for hearing on Monday. Application was made in private chambers before a divorce judge today for the case to be expedited on Mrs. Cornwallis-West's behalf. The judge accepted the reasons offered for accelerating the hearing and instructed that the action be placed first on the list next week.

The case is now entered in the official schedule as "West J. vs. West G.E.M.C. The suit is classed as an undefended action, and the procedure on Monday will be somewhat as follows:

A King's counsel retained by Mrs. Cornwallis-West's solicitors, will shortly state the facts to the president of the divorce division of the high court of justice, who is hearing the case. Mrs. West will then go on the witness stand to testify to her husband's desertion, and if this is considered sufficient evidence, Sir Samuel Evans, the president, will formally order the husband to resume cohabitation in a certain number of days.

The hearing may not last longer than ten minutes and must be held in public court.

PUPILS GO ON STRIKE.
(Courier Leased Wire)

MONTREAL, March 1.—Pending an investigation into the insults which are alleged to have offended the Hebrew race by a teacher at the Aberdeen school, the two hundred pupils of that institution, who went out on strike yesterday will return to their desks on Monday morning. There were several conferences yesterday among the Hebrew leaders and as a result it is likely that the trouble will receive an airing before the school commission. Principal Cockfield of Aberdeen school it is said, will ask the expulsion of some of the strike leaders.

The striking children lined the sidewalks near the school yesterday.

Mr. James Carruthers, the big Winnipeg and Montreal grain dealer who has become president of the Richelieu and Ontario Navigation Company.

and cheered lustily. A solitary foot policeman and one mounted officer paraded up and down the road trying to disperse the crowd, but as soon as the youthful strikers were moved from one part of the square they gathered at another. The arrival of Dr. Abramovitch and Mr. E. W. Jacobs, K.C., who came to interview Mr. Cockfield was the signal of an outbreak of cheering and when, after the interview these gentlemen drove away, cheers rang out throughout the square until the sleigh was out of sight.

To investigate into the causes of the class, the legislative committee of the Baron de Hirsch Institute met at the offices of Mr. Jacobs yesterday afternoon. They discussed the attitude taken by the boys, and thought it was justifiable if the alleged insults had really been offered.

It was decided, however, that the boys must return to school on Monday morning, and the matter will be taken up with the school commissioners.

BREAKS A COLD IN A FEW HOURS—PAPE'S

First Dose Pape's Cold Compound Relieves all Grippe Misery

After the very first dose of "Pape's Cold Compound" you distinctly feel the cold breaking and all the disagreeable grippe symptoms leaving.

It is a positive fact that a dose of Pape's Cold Compound taken every two hours until three consecutive doses are taken will cure Grippe or break up the most severe cold, either in the head, chest, back, stomach or limbs.

It promptly ends the most miserable headache, dullness, head and nose stuffed up, feverishness, sneezing, sore throat, running of the nose, mucous catarrhal discharge, soreness, stiffness and rheumatic twinges.

Take this wonderful Compound with the knowledge that there is nothing else in the world which will cure your cold or end Grippe misery as promptly and without any other assistance or bad after effects as a 25 cent package of Pape's Cold Compound, which any druggist can supply—it contains no quinine—be sure you get what you ask for—accept no substitute—belongs in every home. Tastes nice—acts gently.

Old World Notes.

Ingenious smuggling methods were described at a recent inquiry of the Dominion Local Government Board into charges against the administration of the South Dublin workhouse, brought by Andrew O'Brien, a one-legged inmate, against Mr. Patrick Hennessy, assistant master, who has visitors sometimes brought in things of female inmates, and some, especially the female visitors, were very ingenious in bringing in contraband. On one occasion a woman was searched and nothing could be found in her possession, but when she was settling her hat a pint of whisky fell out of her hair. He also related how on another occasion money and tobacco were found in the wooden leg of a man.

A curious story about a horse was told at the Ballinasloe (Co. Galway) court a few days ago. The Rev. D. Coghlan, parish priest of Anghrim, had been summoned for allowing a horse, his property, to wander on the public road. The prosecuting sergeant created amusement by stating that his attention was drawn to the wandering animal by Father Coghlan himself, who did not know that he was the owner, and therefore liable to be fined. The argument also said that he had the animal taken to the pound with the assistance of the priest's own man, who, like the master did not recognize the horse.

£3000 for an alms bowl was offered recently to the authorities of Studley Church, Ripon (York), by representatives of the South Kensington Museum. As a result of this the Marquis of Ripon and other church wardens of Studley church made an application a few days ago, to the Chancellor of Ripon Cathedral for permission to sell the relic, the proceeds to be devoted to church improvements. Some objection was made to selling sacred vessels used in church service. The sale was finally allowed. £200 of the proceeds to be invested for the benefit of the poor, £100 for the permanent repair fund and the balance to improvements suggested by the church wardens. In granting the concession the Chancellor said he would have hesitated to grant permission if the article had been a paten or chalice but the alms bowl was a child's porringer with the letters of the alphabet on it.

A disastrous fire, which resulted in the complete destruction of two business establishments, and their contents and did serious damage to a third, took place the other day at Portadown, (Co. Armagh). The premises involved were situated in the centre of a large block of two story structures. The fire originated in the kitchen at the rear of the grocery establishment of a man named Thomas Preston. It was discovered shortly after midnight and when a policeman in charge of the sub-district arrived on the spot a few minutes afterwards it had not made much headway. About that time, however, an oil tank in the kitchen exploded, and the flames then spread with alarming rapidity. The alarm was given, and the members of the volunteer fire brigade promptly responded to the call, and lost no time in getting to work. In the meantime, however, the fire had taken hold on the buildings on either side—motor works and premises used as a victualler's shop. The firemen worked with a will, but in spite of their well directed efforts the premises of Messrs. Preston and Gray (the motor works) were completely gutted, while serious damage was done to Messrs. Hoy Bros., victuallers.

An accident insurance policy for $500 has been issued for Snoozelums, the five-inch high poodle which plays such an important part in Henry W. Savage's famous travel-farce, "Excuse Me." The dog has recently developed a propensity for getting lost. Should any disabling accident overtake him in his wanderings, the necessity for immediately replacing him would entail much trouble and no small expense. Determined to guard against the disadvantage to which he would be put in his financial negotiations for an able successor to Snoozelums by the imperative need of providing such a successor without delay, the manager of the company talked business with a Pittsburgh insurance man, who agreed to accept the poodle as a risk.

Miss Kathleen Clifford, the demure young actress and singer, who as an impersonator of male characters, is well known to the public. Her latest performance, "The Prince of Pilsen," has always been considered one of the chief laughter-provoking bits of a wholly unimpeachable performance. It is of course a humorous play, but it is due to the fact that Dandy's true has made many a serious campaign address. Therefore becoming a professional comedian Dandy had a recognized reputation as a "cart-tail" orator, and earlier Victoriano Huerta, the provisional president of Mexico, who has placed the country under an iron military rule.

Music and Drama

A battle of wits that is viewed with intense interest as waged by the sleuth and the crackman in Officer 666 has made that play the most interesting production given to the American people in many years and easily the most talked about. It succeeded in creating a veritable sensation when presented in New York and Chicago a year ago where the interest aroused kept the box office busy and the theatre crowded during its record run in the Eastern and Western metropolises. "Officer 666" which will be seen here for the first time at the Grand, Tuesday, March 4th, is a jolly good farce, and the secret of its wonderful appeal may be attributed to the riddle that its plot presents, the solving of which is accomplished in a perfect maze of meretricious and by the unfolding of a chain of interesting story that threads the plot in a narrative story.

The management of the Grand Opera House, in the return engagement of the Grand Brothers, under the management of Mr. J. E. Marks, and presented by the Grand Opera House, for the first time commencing Thursday, March 4th, has proven popular. The management appears well for the season, all the theatre.

Frank, who has been a very long a strong supporter of the Grand Opera House, and presented by the Grand Opera House, for the first time commencing Thursday, March 4th, has proven popular. The management appears well for the season, all the theatre.

THE BLESSING OF MOTHERHOOD

Healthy Mothers and Children Make Happy Homes

Motherhood is woman's highest sphere in life. It is the fruition of her dearest hopes and greatest desires; yet thousands of noble women through some derangement have been denied this blessing. In many homes once childless there are now children because of the fact that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound makes women normal, healthy and strong. This is evidenced by the following letters which are genuine and truthful:

London, Ont.—"I wish to thank you for the benefit I received by taking your famous medicine, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Before my baby was born I was so ill I could not stand long or walk any distance. I had to lie down nearly all the time. After I took your medicine from morning till night and was happy and well. I certainly think it relieves pain at childbirth and recommend it to every woman who is pregnant. You may use this testimonial if you like. It may help some other woman."—Mrs. FRANK CORNRY, 132 Adelaide St., London, Ont.

Brooklyn, N.Y.—"I was ailing all the time and did not know what the matter was. I wanted a baby but my health would not permit it. I was nervous, my side ached and I was all run down. I heard that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was good and took the medicine. I have now a beautiful baby and your Compound has helped me in every way."—Mrs. J. J. STEWART, 259 Humboldt St., Brooklyn, N.Y.

performance. The part is that of a young waitress in the Hotel de Ville in Paris, who masquerades as her half-brother to save for him the family estate in Scotland. So closely does it fit Miss Clifford's temperament, methods and voice that it might have been created with her particularly in mind for its portrayal.

The political speech made by Jess Dandy as Alderman Hans Wagner of "Zinnat" in the second act of "The Prince of Pilsen," has always been considered one of the chief laughter-provoking bits of a wholly unimpeachable performance. It is of course a humorous play, but it is due to the fact that Dandy's true has made many a serious campaign address. Therefore becoming a professional comedian Dandy had a recognized reputation as a "cart-tail" orator, and earlier than that day had enjoyed a wide experience as a travelling salesman—a vocation in which he possessed the possession of persuasive vocal powers.

In every performance of "The Merry Widow" Charles Meakins, as Prince Danilo, and Mabel Wilber, as Sonia, dance more than a half-mile. As both have appeared in more than 1,000 performances of the famous Lehar operetta, it is a matter of simple arithmetic to reckon that if, instead of dancing within a circle on a stage, they had walked in an approximately straight-line, by this time they would have covered the distance from New York to Cincinnati.

So splendid is the record of cures made by this medicine that many imitations have been put on the market. The genuine bears the portrait and signature of A. W. Chase, M.D., the famous Receipt Book author. 25 cents bottle, family size, 60 cents, all dealers or Edmondson, Bates & Co., Limited, Toronto.

Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine

Miss Grace Marks, whose remarkable ability has on other occasions been a matter of pleasure to patrons of the Grand, will again take the leading role in each of the four performances, a special matinee will be played Saturday afternoon at 2.30 p.m.

The offering Thursday night will be the well and favorably known rural comedy drama "Virgie Swaine," taken from the book of "Peacocks Valley," the dramatization of the great writer St. Smith Russell's.

For the other three plays Mr. Marks promises to have a big surprise for all in the line of stock companies.

The Marks Bros. which is composed of actors and actresses of recognized worth, will be assisted in Brantford by specialty artists of strong repute in the theatrical world.

Seats on sale at the box office on Monday for all plays. Prices will remain the same to all, 10c, 20c, 30c, matinee, 10c, 20c, March 6th, 7th, 8th and 9th.

That they may see themselves as others see them, Henry W. Savage is trying to arrange for a trip from St. Louis to Chicago for the seventy-four members of the Western Everywoman Company, and a visit in the latter city of sufficient length to permit them to witness a special performance of "Everywoman" by the Eastern company without in any way interfering with the schedule of performances of either organization. Neither of these companies, however, had the opportunity of seeing the famous modern morality play enacted by the other and their itineraries for the future promise no other such advantageous chance as is provided by their appearance in St. Louis and Chicago simultaneously. From St. Louis the route of the Western company is in an almost direct line to the Pacific Coast, while the Eastern Company will move Eastward from Chicago. From St. Louis to Chicago, however, is simply an over-night jump, and the town next after St. Louis on the Western company's schedule can be reached almost as quickly from Chicago as from the Mississippi River metropolis. By the utilization of a special train leaving Chicago after a special Sunday morning departure the plan probably can be carried out.

Willis P. Sweetnam has been in the public eye for fifty years, appearing night after night before audiences of hundreds of persons. During the last two seasons, since he has been a member of Henry W. Savage's "Excuse Me" company, he has excited every important city in the country. But when he mingles with the crowds on any main street, from New York to San Francisco, he is so rarely recognized by anyone who is not a personal acquaintance that such recognition is memorable. Sweetnam is pre-eminent among the negro delineators of the stage and every one of his performances has been that of a "black-face" character. Such an effective disguise is the smear of lamp-black which covers his features when behind the footlights, that very few of the thousands who have applauded him could surely identify him upon encountering him on the street minus the "make-up."

Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine proves its value as a germ destroyer. Turpentine is well known as one of the greatest of germicides, and is so combined in this great medicine as to be agreeable to the taste, and at the same time 100 per cent. efficient in the killing of the germs of disease.

Get after the cold when in its early stages with Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine, and you have nothing to fear. You can also use this treatment for chest colds, bronchitis and asthma, with the most gratifying results.

So splendid is the record of cures made by this medicine that many imitations have been put on the market. The genuine bears the portrait and signature of A. W. Chase, M.D., the famous Receipt Book author. 25 cents bottle, family size, 60 cents, all dealers or Edmondson, Bates & Co., Limited, Toronto.
