greatest of latter-day Christian saints, to the grave. Dr. Kramer testified very strongly to the personal religion of Henry George. He said that one time the power of religion in social problems was questioned by a man who was talking to Henry George. Dr. Kramer said that, with flashing eye, George replied: "If religion be nothing more than you think it to be, our cause is lost, because, unless there is reality in religion and we can appeal through it to fumatity, we shall never get back God's land, for God's poor children."
After the Lord's Prayer had been said, the Rev. Dr. McGlynn also paid a personal tribute to Henry George. Just after 11 o'dock the coffin was not been constituted in the hearse. There was no demonstration of any kind. The pail-decrers were: John V. George, brothers L. George, Maurice R. George, brothers L. Johnson and Lous F., Post. Only the immediate relatives and a few friends were at the grave.
